

Frank Bond

A Pall of gloom was cast over Sparta by the sudden death of Frank Bond at Akron, Ohio, on July 9, after an operation for appendicitis. His remains were brought to the home of his father, Mr. J. R. Bond, Sunday morning. Funeral services were held on July 14, at the home. He was the second son of James R. And Achie Garvey Bond and was born on Oct. 27, 1891, in Owen County and was 38 years, 8 months and 12 days old at the time of his death.

He was a member of the Owenton Christian Church and his death will be mourned by many relatives and friends as he was a young man of good deeds.

Although he had made his home in other states for 17 years, he never forgot the friends of his boyhood days. He was preceded to the grave by one brother, Hugh W. Bond, who died in France during the World War; his mother also preceded him to the grave eight years ago. He is survived by his wife, Matilda Bond, father, step-mother, one sister, Mrs. Irvin Scott, and brother, Ralph, three nieces and nephews.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the relatives.

Rev. W. J. Charke, a personal friend of the family, delivered a beautiful funeral discourse, after which the funeral cortage wended its way to the New Liberty cemetery where all that was mortal was laid to rest, many dropping silent tears to his memory. – Sparta Correspondent. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 24, 1930, Page 8, Column 3

Mrs. William Callaghan

Mrs. William Catlaghan died at her home at Mint Spring Thursday night. The funeral was held at the home Saturday by Rev. Charles Deering of the Gratz Methodist church of which she was a member. The remains were laid to rest in the family grave-yard near the home where she had spent the larger part of her 82 years.

“Aunt Lockett” as she was affectionately called by her intimate friends, was a most kindly neighbor and fine Christian character, who merited and enjoyed the love and respect of all who knew her. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, April 17, 1930 Page 1, Column 5

Mrs. Annie Bond Grimes

Mrs. Anna Bond Grimes 75 years old passed away July 13, 15 the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mayme Chandler, at Lakeland.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 o'clock at the Sparta Christian Church by Rev. W. J. Clarke, a personal friend of the family.

Mrs. Grimes had lived near Sparta all her life, and she will be remembered by many of her friends and relatives for the many kind deeds she did. She was always ready to help those in need of help.

She was a member of the Christian Church, having been so since early childhood.

She was preceded to the grave by her husband and two sons, James and Granville, and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mayme Chandler, Lakeland; one son, Fred and six grandchildren.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

The entire community extend sympathy to the relatives. After a beautiful funeral discourse the funeral cortage wended its way to the old burying ground on the Grimes farm and all that was mortal was laid to rest to await the resurrection. –Sparta Correspondent. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 24, 1930, Page 8, Column 3

Frank Jackson

Frank Jackson died suddenly Saturday night at his home on Elk Ridge. He was 72 years old and had long been a resident of this county. He is survived by his wife, a son, Audie Jackson, and two daughters.

The funeral was held Monday at Beech Grove by Rev. Birchett Kemper. Burial in Owenton cemetery. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, May 8, 1930, Page 5, Column 3

George W. Jackson

George W. Jackson, better known as “Stonewall” Jackson, died in Georgetown Monday morning at the age of 86. Burial in Georgetown cemetery Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Jackson was a Confederate veteran and a native of Owen county. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 6, 1930, Page 1, Column 6

Gip Kelly

Gip Kelly died Monday at Lakeland. He had been in ill health for several months. His remains were brought to his home at Monterey and funeral services held at the home. Burial was in the Monterey cemetery. He is survived by his wife and four children. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 30, 1930, Page 5, Column 4

Mrs. Rebecca Mason

Mrs. Rebecca Mason died in Cincinnati at the home of her son, Roy Mason, April 29, and was brought to Mussel Shoals for burial May 1st.

Mrs. Mason spent all of her life, except the last five years, in this county where many relatives and friends mourn their loss. One other son, Jesse Mason, of Cincinnati, and a brother, Hiram Stamper, of Lusby, survive her. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, May 8, 1930, Page 1, Column 3

Mrs. Frank Lowdenback

Mrs. Frank Lowdenback died at her home at Pleasant Home Sept. 5.

She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Wm. Ed Bourne, three sisters, Mrs. Chas. Goodrich, Wm. Ed. Lusby, Miss Ida Mary, and one brother, B.

Funeral services were held at the Pleasant Home Baptist Church Sunday, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Jeffries, and interment was in the Owenton cemetery. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, September 11, 1930, Page 5, Column 6

Mrs. Eva Sale Lusby

Mrs. Eva Sale Lusby died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ora Wood, April 5th. She was the widow of the late John T. Lusby and leaves her daughter, her son, J. T. Lusby, Jr., three step-sons, Robert G., William, and Dr. Allie Lusby; one brother, Gip Sale; and a host of friends to mourn their loss by her going. Mrs. Lusby's funeral service was held at South Fork, Monday at 11 A. M., by Rev., J. G. Prather, pastor of Squiresville Baptist church where she was a member. A large congregation was present. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery at

Owenton. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, April 10, 1930 Page 1, Column 5

Mrs. G. C. Nash

Mrs. G. C. Nash died at the home of Mrs. Will Manson at Stamping Ground Wednesday, April 30, at the age of 84. The remains were laid to rest in the burying ground of her fathers at Mussel Shoals.

Mrs. Nash was a daughter of John and Lucinda Holbrook, a member of a family of eight children, six of whom lived to pass their four score years; the youngest, J. W. Holbook, survives. She was married at an early age to George C. Nash, a Confederate soldier. About 44 years ago she moved to Missouri where she made her home until about four years ago she returned to Kentucky. Her husband, a grandson, and a son, John D. Nash, all preceded her to the grave. She was frugal, conservative and industrious and a pillar to the little Baptist church in Kidder, Missouri, where she was a member. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, May 8, 1930, Page 5, Column 3

George W. O'Banion

Relatives regret to learn of the death of Geo. W. O'Bannion at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Roland, at Erlanger June 19. Funeral and burial was at Williamstown Saturday afternoon the 21st.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ellis Roland, Covington, and Mrs. John Roland; three sons, Jasper and Walter, of Earlville, Ill, and Greenville, of Indiana; one brother, and one sister, Paschal O'Bannion, and Mrs. Elizabeth Gross, both of Elwood, Ind; and five half brothers, F. M. And Owen, of the county, Andy, of Masion, Ohio, and Jasper and Steve O'Banion, of Georgetown.

Mr. O'Banion was in his eighties and was born and reared in this community. He always made a special effort to attend the O'Banion Gross reunion held at Mt. Hebron annually on Labor Day. Needmore Correspondent Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 3, 1930, Page 1, Column 4

Jesse O'Banion Passes Away

Jesse O'Banion; aged 73, died at his home, near Hesler, Saturday. He is survived by his wife, and two sons, Wilford and Lowell O'Banion. A funeral was held at El Bethel church Monday, and burial was in the family burying ground. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 17, 1930, Page 1, Column 6

Mrs. Kisar O'Banion

The remains of Mrs. Kisar O'Banion, of near Owenton, were brought here [Gratz] Wednesday. The funeral conducted by Rev. C. G. Deering, was held in the Christian church and burial in the Gratz cemetery. Mrs. O'Banion was 89 years of age and had spent most of her life in the Gratz community. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, April 10, 1930 Page 5, Column 3

Miss Lizzie O'Banion

Miss Lizzie O'Banion died Sunday afternoon at her home near Beech Grove following an illness of several months. A funeral service, conducted by Rev. J. A. Lee, was held at Beech Grove Baptist Church Tuesday, and burial in the cemetery there.

Surviving are her father Newton O'Banion, two sisters, Mrs. Will Bond and Mrs. Albert Estes, two brothers Hugh and Walter O'Banion.

This death is most painful to Hugh O'Banion because of the unusual love and devotion that existed between this sister and brother and the fact that they had lived together and had made a home for each other for the past ten years. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, May 22, 1930, Page 1, Column 6

Henry Perkins

Henry Perkins, 74 years old, died last Wednesday at his home near Breck. He is survived by two sons and two daughters, J. H. And Charley Perkins and Mrs. Lawrence Parker.

Funeral services were held at Beech Grove and burial was in the Owenton cemetery Friday. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, April 24, 1930 Page 1, Column 1

Polk Raisor

At the age of 86 years, Polk Raisor died at his home near Pleasant Home on Saturday, Sept. 6 and was buried there Monday morning Sept. *

He was one of the oldest Odd Fellows and masons in the county, and these two orders had charge of the funeral.

Mr. Raisor is survived by his wife, one son, Elzie, and a brother. W. T. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, September 11, 1930, Page 1, Column 3

Z. H. Roberts Passes Away

As we go to press we learn of the death of Z. H. Roberts at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. T. Bourne, at Cedar Hill. Further notice will appear next week. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 30, 1930, Page 1, Column 3

Funeral service for this worthy citizen, a short account of whose death appeared in last week's issue was held at the old home on Seminary St. Friday, August 1, at 2, P. M. The service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. J. Clarke, who made a most interesting talk on retiring but sincere life of the deceased. Rev. J. E. Baird, of the Baptist Church, led in prayer.

A large concourse of relatives and friends gathered to pay a Past tribute of respect to Mr. Roberts. At the grave, in the Owenton cemetery, The Odd Fellows took charge and buried him in honor of the order

His beloved wife, Mrs. Susie Roberts, preceded him to the grave, just a few days over a year ago. Mr. Roberts leaves children viz.: Mrs. A. T. Bourne, Mrs. R. C. Head, Mrs. Susie Rue, Mrs. J. G. Prather, Clark and Joe Roberts. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, August 7, 1930, Page 1, Column 6

Miss Anna Rowlett

Miss Anna Rowlett died at her home in this county Friday July 4th after an illness of several weeks. She was a daughter of Sidney S. And America Bourne Rowlett, and lived to the age of 74 years, four months and 13 days.

About 59 years ago she united with the Gratz Methodist Church of which she remained a faithful member.

She is survived by three sisters, three nieces, two nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends who cherish her memory.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. Chas. Deering; and burial was in the family burying ground.

The pall bearers were: Sid Clements, John Bourne, Ira Sparks, Will Clements, Roland Bourne and W. F. Bourne. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 10, 1930, Page 1, Column 4

Mrs. Layle Samford Succumbs

Following a surgical operation Sunday, Mrs. Layle Samford died Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock in the maternity ward of a Lexington Hospital. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, August 7, 1930, Page 1, Column 3.

Early Tuesday morning Aug. 5th, the sad news came to us, of the death of Mrs. Layle Samford.

She was taken to a hospital in Lexington Friday evening there undergoing an operation, which resulted in her death.

Fannie Mae, as she was commonly known, was a friend to everyone. She possessed a sweet, unselfish disposition.

We can truly say, that her life, though very short, was not lived in vain, when we realize that it was lived for others.

It was hard for us to give her up, but our "Heavenly Father" who doeth all things well, chooseth, sometimes, the fairest flower from his Saints below to serve him in that Heaven above. She was Miss Fannie Mae Nutter of near Lexington, before her marriage to Lafe Samford November 2, 1921.

She is survived by her young husband, her father, Mr. c. C. Nutter, two brothers, W. J. And Coleman, and a host of loved ones and friends.

Her funeral was preached at the Long Ridge Church, where she was a beloved member, and she was laid to rest, by the side of her infant son, in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery in Owenton. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, August 14, 1930, Page 1, Column 4

Henry Sanders

Mr. Henry Sanders, age 77, a widely known and highly respected citizen, died at Detroit, Mich., May 12.

Mr. Sanders had made his home until about three years ago at Gest when he sold his interest there going to Detroit where he resided until death.

He was born in 1852 and was united in marriage to Miss Sallie Eddins in 1881. He was a member of the Christian church of Monterey. He is survived by his wife, four daughters, Mrs. Rena Hall, of Gest; Mrs. Effie Leach, of Lockport; Mrs. Pauline McGinnis and Mrs. Helen Thurman, of Detroit; three sons, Carroll and Bernard, of Detroit and Harry, of Monterey; one sister, Mrs. Meal, of Shelby County and 11 grandchildren.

The remains were brought to Monterey and after funeral services at the Christian church by Rev. J. R. Parker, of Wilmore were laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery at Monterey. The Masonic Lodge, to which he belonged, had charge of the burial rites.

The active pallbearers were Raymond Frost, Howard Lee, Peter Hudson, Estill Gugin, John Lee and Clarence Nichols. The honorary pall bearers were: John Smither, Levi Keniper, Louis Shiddell, Edgar McClure, George Dilledder, William Marshall and Foster Dillender.

The little girls who helped to carry the many floral offerings were: Ruth Sanders, Helen Louise Sanders and Mildred McGinnis, granddaughters of the deceased, and Edna Simpson. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, May 22, 1930, Page 1, Column 5

Van W. Sanders

About 11 o'clock Monday morning, May 26, Van W. Sanders, young Owen county farmer, met with fatal injuries when he was thrown from his wagon, death ensuing in a few minutes.

Mr. Sanders was loading a scalding box on his wagon, preparatory to shearing sheep. The mule team he was driving started to run away, circling the barn lot several times. Mr. Sanders would have been able to control them but for the fact that one line broke. He was sitting on a spring seat, and when the line broke, plunged forward from the wagon, his neck being broken in the fall.

With him in the barn lot were his father, O. H. Sanders, and his little five year old son, Junior. He was able to tell his father to get the baby out of the way before he passed away.—The Carrollton Democrat. . Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 6, 1930, Page 1, Column 4

Mrs. Jake Stivers.

Mrs. Jacob Stivers died at her home on South Seminary Street Friday afternoon at the age of 70. She suffered a stroke of paralysis about ten years ago which confined her to an invalid's chair and caused her much suffering which she bore with great fortitude.

Surviving are her husband, five sons, W. J., L. R., Paschal, Frank, Ansel, all of this county, and Evan, of Boston, Mass.; one daughter, Mrs. Sam Poe, of Dayton, Ohio.

The funeral, conducted by Rev. J. G. Prather, was held at the Squiresville Baptist church Sunday, and burial in Squiresville cemetery. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 17, 1930, Page 1, Column 6

Alice Stewart Thornton

Alice Stewart Thornton died at her home at Jonesville Friday evening after suffering a second stroke of paralysis Wednesday morning. Friends and relatives did all that loving friends could do to relieve her suffering but to no avail; God wanted her, and so she was called, leaving her faithful husband to face life's battles alone. Her pastor, Rev. Clarke, conducted the funeral at the Macedonia Baptist church Sunday afternoon. Watson & Orr had charge of the burial. The large crowds that followed her to her last resting place spoke plainly of the love and respect that the entire community had for Mr. and Mrs. Thornton. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 24, 1930, Page 8, Column 4

Methias Toole

Methias Toole, age 65, died at his home on the Brissie Lane, Sunday night, after an illness of several months. He is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters. Following a brief funeral service at the home, the remains were buried in the Owenton cemetery Tuesday morning. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 26, 1930, Page 1, Column 3

Mrs. Richard Williams

Mrs. Richard Williams died at her home at the Forks of Elkhorn Sept. 5 and was buried here Monday afternoon, Besides her husband she is survived by four sons: Herndon, Robert, Everett and Riggs. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, September 11, 1930, Page 1, Column 2

Uncle Billie Wilson

The funeral of Uncle Billie Wilson was conducted at the Macedonia Baptist church by his pastor, Bro. G. C. Mullins, Wednesday, April 16. Uncle Billie had lived here [Jonesville] for many years but for the past four years had been with his daughter, Mrs. John Courtney, in Knoxville. He leaves three sons and two daughters to mourn his loss. He was in his 98th year and had been a faithful member of the Baptist church for many years. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, April 17, 1930 Page 8, Column 1

Woods—Infant son dies

An infant son of Mr. And Mrs. C. D. Woods died Thursday afternoon at birth. This, the loss of their first born, James Cabell, was a great shock. The remains were laid to rest Friday in the Beech Grove churchyard. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, May 8, 1930, Page 1, Column 3

Arthur Wynn

Arthur Wynn, of the firm of Jones & Wynn at New Columbus, died Sunday, July 6, at 5 P.M. The late Mr. Wynn was 41 years of age, and was born and reared in the neighborhood of New Columbus. That community as well as the county loses one of its most worthy citizens. Mr. Wynn was a home loving man and too much can not be said of his good qualities. He was a deacon of the New Columbus Baptist church and a leader in every thing that was for the betterment of the community.

He leaves a wife and two children, Daisy, 16, and Sylvia, 9; also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wynn, and a brother, Oakley, and a sister, Mrs. Clint Wainscott, all of this county. Funeral was held July 8 and burial was in the Fairview cemetery at New Columbus.

Rev. Orlie Hale and the pastor of the church officiated. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 10, 1930, Page 8, Column 4

Obituaries 1932

John Ayers Died at Glencoe

After an illness of two weeks John Ayers departed this life Sunday, July 11, at the age of 71 years and five months. He was born at Poplar Grove and spent most of his life in Owen and Gallatin counties. At the age of 27 he married Amanda Cathrine Jump, of Holbrook. Ten children were born to this union, eight of whom survive.

The funeral service was held at the home at Glencoe by Rev. Lee, of Poplar Grove, and the remains were laid to rest in the Poplar Grove cemetery. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 23, 1932, Page 1, Column 6

Joe Baker, Jr. – Dies in St. Louis Hospital After Ten Days Illness

Again the community has been saddened when the news came that Joe Baker, Jr., had passed to the great beyond in a hospital St. Louis, Mo., after suffering for ten days from Pneumonia. All that loving hands and medical skill could do was done to save his life. Young, useful, and prosperous and ideal husband an asset to his parents and a model citizen, his short stay on earth is regrettable.

Joe Baker, Jr. was born April 19th, 1903, and died August 13th, 1932. On August 5th, 1930, he was united in marriage to Miss Jene Stephens of Indiana. He had made his home in Missouri for a number of years. He is survived by his father, Frank Baker, three sisters, Miss Lola Baker, of Louisville, Mrs. Wm. Lee, of Louisville and Mrs. Esper Rose, of Hesler, Owen Co., and two grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crouch, of Gallatin County, one uncle Wm. K. Crouch of near Glencoe, besides many relatives and friends. He became a Master Mason at the age of 21 years and remained a consistent member until death. The funeral was conducted Sunday at 2:30 at Poplar Grove by Rev. Lee preaching a beautiful discourse, after which Sparta Masonic Lodge No. 260 took charge of the services. The remains were laid to rest in Popular Grove cemetery to await the resurrection horn. . Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, August 25, 1932, Page 1, Column 5

Tucker Baldwin

Tucker Baldwin, 38, died at his home near Long Ridge last Thursday morning, July 14, following a several days illness.

Tucker was the only son of the late George and Sarah Baldwin. He confessed Christ at an early age, united with the Mt. Carmel Christian Church and later moved his membership to the Macedonia Baptist Church at Jonesville, where he remained a faithful Christian. He was married to Mrs. Polly Cammack Baldwin Jan, 16, 1927, and to this union was born one son, Allen T. Besides his wife and son, he leaves two sisters and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his passing.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. G. C. Mullins and Rev. L. E. Aldridge, were held at Jonesville on Saturday and interment was at Jonesville. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 14, 1932, Page 1, Column 4

V. A. Brock

Virgil Allen Brock, 77, died at his home in Sparta, June 21, following an illness of several months. For fifty years Mr. Brock operated the Old Eagle Mill in Sparta and was one of Sparta's most enterprising citizens. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. Aldridge, were held at the Sparta Baptist Church and interment was at Warsaw. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 7, 1932, Page 1, Column 3

William Claxton – Man Drowns – While Fishing in the Kentucky River at Gratz, Wednesday

William Claxon, 64 years old, formerly of Pleasureville, and who for the last several weeks has been at work on the State Highway Bridge at Leitch's Landing, was drowned at Gratz at 5:30 o'clock last Wednesday afternoon when he was stricken with a heart attack while fishing in a small boat and fell backward into the Kentucky river. The body was soon recovered. Mr. Claxon was a widower and is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Will Hawkins, Gratz, with whom he was living, Mrs. Ernest Minor, Lexington, and Miss Mary Alice Claxon, Bethlehem; three sons, Charles Claxon, U. S. Army, Leslie and Lawrence Claxon, both of Louisville. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 9, 1932, Page 1, Column 3

Miss Mary G. Coates

The many friends of Miss Mary G. Coates were grieved to learn of her death which occurred at her home in New Liberty July 2, 1932, at the age of 84. For a number of years she had been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilson.

About 50 years ago Miss Mary was converted and joined the New Liberty Baptist Church under the pastorate of Dr. P. T. Hale. As a Christian, she was ever faithful; only illness could prevent her from attending the Lord's House on the Lord's Day. She was the only surviving charter member of the New Liberty W. M. S., and for 21 years she had been a Sunday School teacher.

Miss Mary was beloved by all who knew her, as she was always kind and pleasant to every one.

She is survived by two cousins, Mrs. J. A. Wilson, of New Liberty, and Mrs. S. Lewis, of Sparta. Funeral services, conducted by her pastor, assisted Rev. Kersey, assisted by Rev. Chambers, pastor of the New Liberty Christian Church, were held at the home on Monday, July 4, and burial was at New Liberty. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 14, 1932, Page 1, Column 4

Lee Cook

Lee Cook, a former resident of Owenton, died at his home in Newport last Tuesday following a short illness. He was born and reared in this county, and has numerous relatives and friends here who are grieved to learn of his death. His remains were brought here Thursday and interment was in the Owenton cemetery. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 7, 1932, Page 1, Column 3

George W. Dillender

George W. Dillender died at his home in Wilmore Saturday, July 23, 1923. He had been ill for several years, but had only been bedfast for a week. He had lived here most of his life, and moved to Wilmore in April where he made his home with his son, Foster. Mr. Dillender was a member of the Monterey Baptist church and also of the Masonic Lodge. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Brad Raisor, Monterey, and one son, Foster, nine grandchildren, and eight great grandchildren. Funeral services were held in the Baptist Church at two o'clock Monday afternoon. Monterey Correspondent. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 28, 1932, Page 1, Column 4

Mrs. Margaret Foster

Mrs. Margaret Foster died Thursday, June 16, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Lucas. She had been in failing health several months, but had been bedfast only a week. She was a Christian woman and was liked by all who knew her. She is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Bill Sparks and Mrs. Cecil Lucas, Monterey, Mrs. Porter Thomas, Perry, Ohio, Mrs. J. E. Jones, Winchester, Mrs. Gypsy Roland, Shelbyville, three sons, Buford and Walter, Lawton, Okla., and Bill, of Detroit, Mich. She is also survived by fifteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services conducted by Bro. Noel, were held at the Monterey Christian Church Saturday afternoon and burial was in the Monterey cemetery; Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 23, 1932, Page 1, Column 6

Atmore Glass – Found Dead in His Room in Covington Last Thursday

Mr. Atmore Glass, 58, a well known and highly respected citizen of the county, was found dead in his room in Covington last Thursday morning. The coroner stated he had been dead for several hours and pronounced cerebral hemorrhage as the cause of his death. His remains were prepared for burial by Watson and Orr and were brought to the home of his brother, Mr. G. [Jehu] Glass at Hesler.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. Peak, were held at the grave on Sunday and interment was in the Owenton cemetery.

Mr. Glass had lived in Owen county practically all of his life, having operated a general store at Hesler for several years, later moving to Owenton, where he lived for some time. During the past few years, he had been engaged in farming.

Atmore Glass was a generous, kind-hearted, and courteous gentleman, and made friends wherever he went. He was always ready to help share the burdens of his less fortunate fellow man and the large crowd that paid him the last tribute of respect attests his popularity.

To his relatives and friends we extend our deepest sympathy. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 2, 1932, Page 1, Column 5

In Memory – Mrs. Mary D. McPherron Hammon

On Sunday morning, May 15th, 1932, at 6:30 o'clock, Mrs. Mary D. McPherron Hammond died suddenly at her home in Owenton, aged 63 years. Only her family and intimate friends knew that Mrs. Hammond was not in perfect health. She is survived by her husband, Mark Hammond, one son, Everett L. Hammond, one brother, W. E. McPherron, and three sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Toole, Mrs. Mattie Stafford, and Mrs. Katie Hammond. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 2, 1932, Page 8, Column 4

Mrs. Mary F. Hampton

Mrs. Mary S. Hampton, widow of Jess Hampton, died suddenly Friday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. L. Vallandingham. Mrs. Hampton, who often visits her daughter and has made many friends here, had come to Owenton about ten days ago from New Jersey. While she had not been real well, she had not appeared ill and her death came as a shock to her family and friends. Mrs. Hampton was 81 years old. She was born in Grant county, but spent most of her life in Harrison county. She was a noble Christian woman and will be greatly missed. On Saturday her body was taken to her old home near Sadieville and funeral and burial took place Monday at Williamstown.

Besides Mrs. Vallandingham, she is survived by five other daughters, Mrs. J. Matthews, Burlington, Mrs. W. A. Hinton, Sadieville, Mrs. L. V. Archiect, New Jersey, Mrs. E. M. McMroy, Cincinnati, and Miss Daisy Hampton, Covington, and three sons, U. S. Hampton, Bremen, Ind., E. C. Hampton, Cleveland, and Ed Hampton, Corinth. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 23, 1932, Page 1, Column 6

T. S. Hampton

T. S. Hampton, 75 years old, died at his home in Scott county Friday following an illness of several days. Mr. Hampton formerly lived in this county, but for the past fifteen years had operated a mill in Scott county. He is survived by one brother, G. D. Hampton, with whom he made his home. Funeral services, conducted by rev. J. A. Lee, were held at the Richland Baptist Church on Sunday and burial was at Richland Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 21, 1932, Page 1, Column 3

John Hayes Dead

John Hayes, formerly of this county, died Tuesday night at his home in Warsaw. Further details will be given next week. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 9, 1932, Page 5, Column 2

John T. Hayes, father of Jno. Mae Hayes of Owenton, and for many years a resident of this county, died June 7 at Warsaw, where he moved two years ago.

The body was brought here Friday for burial in the Owenton cemetery following funeral services at the home in Warsaw. He was a retired farmer and for many years was a deacon of the Long Ridge Baptist Church.

Besides his son, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jeronie Boyler, Chicago, and Miss Emily Hayes, Williamson, W. Va. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 16, 1932, Page 1, Column 3

Louise Herndon

An unusually large crowd of friends and relatives gathered at the Baptist church Saturday morning to pay the last tribute of respect to Louise Herndon, who died at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Covington, Wednesday evening. Funeral services were conducted by the pastor, G. C. Mullins. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved parents, brothers, and sisters. May God give to them strength in this their hour of great trial. Jonesville Cor. . Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, September 22, 1932, Page 5, Column 3

Life's trials and troubles are ended on earth for Louise, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Herndon, who was born Oct. 14, 1915, and died at the St. Elizabeth Hospital Sept. 14, 1932, living only four days after an appendicitis operation being 16 years 11 months 10 days old at the time of her death. After weary hours of suffering she closed her eyes in that dreamless sleep, called death, like a child going to sleep in its mother arms.

She leaves a devoted father and mother, two sisters and six brothers to mourn her loss. The Funeral services were held in the Baptist church at Jonesville Sept. 16th, by Rev. G. C. Mullins. Sadie Stewart, Madie Cannon, Gladys Henderson, Katherine Smith, Elizabeth Stewart and Sylvia Scott were flower girls and Carter Greene, Elmo Jones, Chester Noel, J. R. Ransdell,

Butler Cammack and Paul Stewart were pall bearers. . Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, September 29, 1932, Page 8, Column 3

Lester Jones Succumbs To Long Illness

Lester Jones, farmer of New Liberty, died at his home on September 22nd, after a long illness. He was a son of Chas. And Sallie Jones, of Jonesville. At the time of his death Mr. Jones was 44 years of age, having been born, December 15th, 1887. In spite of illness and handicaps, Mr. Jones was an efficient farmer, always diligent and progressive. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, Lois Morgan Jones, two sons, Austin and Nelson, one daughter, Bessie, his mother, one sister, Mrs. R. C. Greene, of Rising Sun, Indiana; one brother, of Long Ridge, Ky., and numerous other relatives and a host of friends.

The funeral was preached at the Baptist church here, Rev. W. o. Kersey, officiating. Interment was in the Odd Fellows Cemetery. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, September 29, 1932, Page 1, Column 5

C. W. Kenney – Passes to His Eternal Reward

Again the Grim reaper Death has visited our little city and taken from our midst C. W. Kenney, one of our noblest and best citizens. For several days he had been confined to his home with paralysis, and one Sunday afternoon at 2:30 he peacefully passed away.

Mr. Kenney was 74 years old and had lived his entire life here. For many years he had owned and operated a saw mill here. He was a man of quiet and unassuming manner and possessed all the qualities that make a good citizen—loyal to his family, his friends, his lodge and his church. He was a devoted member of the Owenton Baptist Church and one of the oldest members of the Odd Fellows' Lodge here.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. R. L. Vallandingham, with whom he made his home, three sisters, Mrs. Ida Bell, of Cincinnati, Mrs. Clay Fantkner, Sadieville, Mrs. John Harrod, Eastwood, two brothers, Thomas Kenney, of Frankfort, and O. C. Kenney, of Owenton. His wife preceded him to the grave several years ago.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. E. Baird, were held at the Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon and interment was in the Owenton Cemetery Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 14, 1932, Page 1, Column 4

Mrs. Churchill Lusby

Funeral services were held Saturday at Squiresville Baptist church for Mrs. Churchill Lusby, age 75, who died at her home in Squiresville July 21.

Besides her husband, C. L. Lusby, and Children, A. T. And Forest Lusby, Mrs. W. J. Stivers, Mrs. R. L. Stivers and Mrs. C. T. Yancy, she leaves a brother, Rev. Louis Thomas, and a large number of other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 14, 1932, Page 1, Column 4

Mrs. Sarah E. Lusby

Mrs. Sarah E. Lusby, was born December 3, 1857, departed this life June 3, 1832, being 73 years, six months at the time of her death. She was a daughter of Woodford and Frances Cull.

On February 28, 1877, she was united in marriage to Ethelbert D. Lusby, who departed this life October 23, 1919. Since that time she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Annie Devore. To this union were born five children, three girls and two boys. One girl dying at birth, Everett, Elmer, Mrs. Annie Devore and Mrs. Pearl Hensley still survive, also 14 grandchildren and five great grandchildren. She united with the Salem Baptist Church at an early age, later moving her membership to South Fork where she remained a faithful member.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday, June 5th, at 1 p.m., at the South Fork Baptist Church by Rev. Birchett Kemper, the Pastor. Interment in the South Fork cemetery in charge of J. Vernon Kemper. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 16, 1932, Page 1, Column 3

John B. Martin

The many friends of John B. Martin were grieved when word was received here Monday, announcing his death. Mr. Martin was stricken Saturday night and lived but a few hours. Mr. Martin was 74 years old. He was born and reared in Owenton, lived here until a few years ago, when he went to Louisville. He was a cultured, Christian gentleman, a splendid citizen, and for many years a faithful member of the Owenton Christian church. He was buried in the Owenton cemetery Monday afternoon where a short funeral service was held.

Before bringing the body to Owenton, funeral services were held in his apartment in Louisville.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Belle Teal Martin, and two children, Mrs. Clifton Rhodes and Lyman Martin, of Louisville. . Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, September 22, 1932, Page 1, Column 5

W. K. New

W. K. New, 61 years old, died at his home near Lusby Friday morning. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Roy Howard. The remains were brought to Owenton Saturday for burial. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, September 15, 1932, Page 1, Column 4

Mrs. Mary Reed Died At An Advanced Age

Mrs. Mary Cobb Reed died Monday at her home near Hesler, at the age of 87. She was widow of the late Crockett Reed, and is survived by two sons, Ben Frank and Willie Reed; one daughter, Lucy Reed; and a brother and sister, John Cobb and Mrs. Sarah Morgan of Lusby.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Mussel Shoals Baptist Church where she had been a life-long member. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, September 1, 1932, Page 1, Column 6

E. M. Shipp

E. M. Shipp, 58 years old, died Monday at his home, near Long Ridge, after several weeks illness. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Fanny Marston Shipp; a daughter, Miss Martha B. Shipp; a son, Robt. Henry Shipp; three brothers, J. H., C. B., and Dr. E. R. Shipp, and two sisters, Mrs. A. J. Cubbage and Mrs. J. D. McPherron. Funeral services held Wednesday at the Owenton Baptist church of which Mr. Shipp was assistant Sunday school superintendent. Burial in Owenton cemetery. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 14, 1932, Page 1, Column 3

Findley Shupert

Findley Shupert died at the home of his son, Earl Shupert, near Breck, Thursday afternoon, September 29. He was 71 years of age, and had been in poor health the past ten years. Mr. Shupert was a man ardently devoted to his religious convictions and was noted for his honest and uprightness. Besides his widow, Mrs. Ambie Shubert, he is survived by four sons, Earl, Roy, Robert, and Dr. F. M. Shupert; three daughters, Mrs. Elmer Wainscott, Mrs. Iva Chandler, and Miss Ruth Shupert.

A funeral service, held Saturday at the home of Earl Shupert, was followed by burial in Owenton cemetery.

Among those here from a distance to attend the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. True of Centralia, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Works, of Albion, Illinois. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, October 6, 1932, Page 1, Column 3

Mrs. Elijah Smith

Mrs. Elijah Smith, 71, passed away at her home here Tuesday afternoon, following a several years illness.

Mrs. Smith with her husband, lived in the Greenup neighborhood for many years, having moved to the outskirts of Owenton on the Sparta pike some ten years ago. Last week they moved to the K. Stafford property on Adair Street. She was a lovable Christian woman and will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Besides her husband, she is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Reuben Proctor and Mrs. Porter Proctor, both of this county, Mrs. Clint Karsner of Madison, Ind., and one son, Howard Smith, of near Long Ridge. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 23, 1932, Page 1, Column 6

C. J. Stringfellow – Dies in Detroit: Remains Brought here for Burial

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Owenton Baptist church for C. J. Stringfellow, who died Monday at his home in Detroit. The body was brought to the home of his sister, Mrs. O. C. Jones, here Tuesday and was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Stringfellow, a son Thomas, and two brothers, Warner and Edward. Another brother, Elizie of Chicago was unable to attend the funeral.

Mr. Stringfellow was a native of this county and married Miss Susie Marston also of this county. For several years he taught in the county schools, but later moved to Frankfort where he was connected with the Kenney Brothers Lumber Company for some years, from there he went to Detroit where he became a valued employee in the one of the large industries of that city. He was an active church worker, and took a leading part in Sunday school activities as teach and superintendent, never lacking, through out his t8 years, in loyalty to the faith he professed in early manhood at Cedar Hill Baptist Church. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, August 11, 1932, Page 1, Column 6

Frank Tolbert

Frank Tolbert, 72, a highly respected citizen of the Breck community, died at his home Friday morning following a long illness. Surviving him are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Roy Kinman and Mrs. Denzil Works, and one son, Turley Tolbert.

Funeral services were held Sunday at Mussel Shoals by Rev. E. C. Long, assisted by Rev. William McGibney, and Rev. Morgan, visiting minister from New Mexico. Burial in Mussel Shoals cemetery. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 14, 1932, Page 1, Column 3

W. H. Toole

W. H. Toole, oldest son of Silas and Betsy Anne Kersy Toole, was born in Owen County near Sweet Owen, May 3rd, 1853 and departed this life Aug 17, 1932 at the age of 80 years, 3 months, and 14 days. In his early life he accepted Christ and united with the church and was soon afterward ordained as deacon.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Fannie Smith Toole, two children, Lawrence, of Grant county, and Mrs. Maggie Beaty, of Newport, five grandchildren, two brothers, J. T. Toole, of Owenton, and B. H. Toole, of Batavia, Ohio. He will be greatly missed by all who loved him, but may we ever be submissive to God's will and realize that our loss is Heaven's gain. Funeral services were held at Greenup church, conducted by Rev. L. E. Fulton and burial followed in Owenton cemetery. . Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, August 25, 1932, Page 1, Column 6

John W. Turner

John W. Turner died in Rochester, N. Y., on Sept. 11, after an operation at Mayo Clinic. Some time during this summer Mr. and Mrs. Turner, together with their daughter, Mary Louise, made a visit to friends and relatives here. At that time Mr. Turner seemed well and strong. For quite a while he had held a responsible position as national Bank Examiner and Receiver. At the time of his death, he and his family were living at Joilet, Ill. Mrs. Turner, before her marriage, was Miss Anna Lee True, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. True, of Owenton, Ky. Mr. Turner had many friends here who regret to hear of his death. His wife and daughter have the sympathy of many friends and relatives. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, September 22, 1932, Page 1, Column 3

Herschel Veal – Former Owen County Man Dies in Florida

Herschel Veal, formerly of Owen County, died in Miami, Fla., last Friday, August 12th, and the remains were brought back to his old home at Squiresville, where the Rev. J. G. Prather conducted the funeral services.

Mr. Veal was a son of the late Dr. Sam Veal and a brother of Dr. Marvin Veal, of Madisonville. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, August 25, 1932, Page 1, Column 6

Estell Wade

Mr. Estell Wade, carpenter, who formerly lived in Owenton but for some time past has resided in Erlanger, Ky., was buried at Worthville Sunday. Mr. Wade had many friends in Owen county who are sorry to hear of his death. . Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, September 22, 1932, Page 1, Column 5

Frank Wainscott, Jr.

Frank Wainscott, Jr., Age 25, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wainscott, died at his home near Long Ridge Saturday morning following a brief illness of kidney trouble.

Besides his parents, he leaves his young wife, who before her marriage was Miss Fannie Crowder.

Little Frank, as he was commonly known, was a Christian gentleman of exemplary habits much admired, and was held in highest esteem by all who knew him. He united with the New Liberty Baptist Church at an early age, and throughout his brief stay here lived an ideal Christian life, and no greater tribute can be paid any man.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. C. G. Billups, were held at the Long Ridge Church on Monday. The large number of friends who more than filled the church attested the love and high regard in which this splendid young man was held by his friends and neighbors.

Interment was in the Owenton Cemetery. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 2, 1932, Page 1, Column 4

Dan Ware

Dan Ware, 78, one of the best known colored men of Owenton, died June 17, at his home on Adair Street.

He was a good citizen and numbered his friends by the hundreds, both among the colored and white people of this community.

Funeral services were conducted at the colored Baptist Church here Sunday afternoon, and interment was in the Owenton colored cemetery. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, June 23, 1932, Page 1, Column 6

Robert Webb

Robert Webb, who has been in bad health for a number of years, died at his home near here Thursday evening. Funeral services were conducted at Macedonia, Saturday afternoon by Rev. G. C. Mullins, after which the body was laid to rest at the Poplar Grove cemetery, beside his son, Jimmie, who preceded him several years. He united with the Baptist church in early life and remained a devoted Christian bearing his affliction without a murmur. He leaves a wife, two sons, and a grandson as the immediate family. Vernon Kemper, of Warsaw, had charge of the funeral. – Jonesville Correspondent. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, September 8, 1932, Page 1, Column 4

B. F. Wiley

B. F. Wiley, age 69, died at his home here July 21, following a long illness. He is survived by his wife; two sons, Con and Charles Wiley, and two daughters, Mrs. Snoda Templeman, and Mrs. Elzora Cobb of Louisville. Funeral-services were held Saturday at the Owenton Baptist church, and followed by interment in the local cemetery. Source: News-Herald, Owenton, Owen County Ky., Thursday, July 28, 1932, Page 1, Column 3

