Notes for James Walker:

From Henry County, Kentucky, 1798-1995: A History of our Heritage, reported from the obituary of William Henry Walker:

During the war of 1812 to 1815, James Walker enlisted and came to Indiana on a campaign against the Indians. Passing through the western part of this county (Hamilton) and being favorably impressed with the appearance of the county, he returned soon after, bringing with him a small quantity of bluegrass seed which he scattered on a small open spot in the woods. Returning again a few years later, he found the bluegrass had taken root, grown and spread to quite a patch. Finding that bluegrass would grow here impressed him so favorably that that he entered several hundred acres of land under the Homestead Act about 2-1/2 miles north of Jolietville, giving a portion to each of his three sons, William Henry, Horace and Theodore. The former, being he was married, came out and commenced to make a home, but not liking the mosquitoes and ague, which seemed to hold supremacy, went back to Kentucky. The other two came out and made their homes on some of the land mentioned above.

HILL, Horace of near Smithfield died last Saturday, wife Miss Lamaster, sister of our countryman Z.H. LAMASTER; 6 children and 2 brothers, Elzie & Clay HILL Henry County Local, New Castle, Kentucky, August 22, 1901.

Horace Hill

One of the saddest deaths it has been our duty to note for a long time is that of Mr. Horace Hill, which occurred at his home near Smithfield on last Saturday morning, after a brief illness of necrosis of the bowels. A specialist, from Louisville, assisted Dr. John Nuttall, performed an operation, but his life could not be saved.

Mr. Hill was well known throughout the county, and had many friends who will regret to learn of his untimely death. He was a successful farmer and stock raiser, and stood high both in social and financial circles. He leaves a wife, who was a Miss Lamaster, sister of our countyman, Z. H. Lamaster; six children, and two brothers, Elzie and Clay Hill. We extend our sympathy to the relatives and friends.

Henry County Local August 22, 1901

Mattie Lee Lamaster was originally named Josephine, but her brothers were calling her Jo. Her mother, Sophronia Scott Lamaster said she already had enough boys and did not want her to be called by a male name so she changed her name to Martha Lee. She always went by "Mattie Lee."

Horace Edgar "Ed" Hill was born near Smithfield, Kentucky. He was born in what we used as the dining room in the house his father built. The house was built to by his father and his father's brother, Marshall Tyler Hill, known as Rip, before his father and mother were married. Ed was fifth generation to live and farm on that the land. The farm he grew up on was part of the original farm purchased by his great great grandmother, Clarissa (Holloway) Hill when she move to Henry County from Virginia after a short stop in Fayette County, Kentucky.

Horace Edgar was married first to Jane Pardo and had one son, Forest Weldon Hill. They divorced when Forest Weldon, known as Mickey, was very young. After his divorce, he married Betty Jean Washburn, from Carroll County, Kentucky, in 1952. Ed and Betty Jean married shortly after Ed's mother, Bernice (Harlan) Hill, died of the breast cancer. They had two children Horace Edgar Hill, Jr. and Bernice Hill Southworth. Three of his four grandchildren (Elizabeth Hill, Stephen Hill and Wesley Southworth) were born before his death. His forth grandchild, Hagan Southworth, was born less than a year after he died.

He farmed almost his entire life, except for a short period of time when he worked at the Bourbon Stockyards in Louisville, Kentucky during the late 1950's. He had a disagreement with his father, William Weldon Hill, concerning the sharing of income from the farm. Ultimately his father gave in and he returned to the farm. Later, with the agreement of his brother, Horace Edgar bought the farm from his father. In the meantime, he also bought another farm that adjoined his father's farm on the back.

Ed served as a magistrate in Henry County for many years. He won his first election after a recount of the votes. He spent most of his years as magistrate fighting to enact zoning laws in the county. He died while still in office and after zoning was passed.

Ed died at age 66 at Jewish Hospital in Louisville, Kentucky in 1990 during his second coronary bypass operation. His first coronary bypass was approximately 10 years earlier.

Notes for Raymond Julius Hill Jr.:

The following was read at the funeral of Raymond Hill by his nephew, James Hill. It was written by his brother, Roland:

My brother, Raymond, and I were identical twins in the eighth grade at John G. Carlisle School in Covington, Ky. At the time we were 13 years old. During an interlude in 'The Pirate's Daughter,' a musical play one step below high school musicals today, the teacher selected me and my brother, Raymond, to sing a song entitled, 'Two Little Magpies.' It went like this:

Two little magpies set upon a rail.

Before long they were fighting each other.

So they fought and they fit and they scratched and they bit

Until all that was left upon the rail was the beak of one of the little magpies and the other little magpie's tail.

Before singing this song, we had our faces blacked. We sang this song in our church, Grace Reformed Church, during the Christmas season. Earlier we sang this song from the stage of the Holmes High School auditorium where we went to high school in Covington."

"My brother Raymond, was born left handed. Although we played together, I never knew he was left handed until I was seven or eight years old. The teachers in school those days were training him to write right-handed. He made the conversion but not like a left-hander like President Obama writes or an aunt of mine wrote. I never gave it a thought but I think it made him stronger mentally and physically When playing ball, his swing at the ball was not as smooth as a typical right-hander. It lacked the power of a left-hander.

The following was written and read at Raymond's funeral by his nephew, James:

Raymond Julius Hill, Jr. and his twin brother, Roland George Hill, were born December 15, 1914 in Algiers (now New Orleans), Louisiana. They were the sons of Raymond Julius Hill, Sr. and Lydia Louise Wiebelt Hill. The twins were baptized in the Episcopal Church in Algiers. The family moved to Covington, Kentucky about 1920.

The brothers attended Third District Elementary School in Covington. The family bought a house in the 1920's at 805 Philadelphia Street in Covington, just three blocks from the school, and remained there until Raymond, Sr.'s death in 1962. Raymond and Roland attended John G. Carlisle Junior High School in 1927 and 1928. The family attended Grace Reformed Church (later United Church of Christ) and the boys were confirmed into membership on April 1, 1928 by Rev. William E.

Generation 4 (con't)

Miller, Grace Church's longest serving pastor. The twins went on to attend Holmes High School in Covington from 1929 to their graduation on June 13, 1933. Roland recalls that their only graduation present was a new suit for each one, as this was during the Great Depression.

Raymond and Roland both attended two years of night school back at Holmes High School, taking business courses in typing, bookkeeping and shorthand. This additional education would serve them well in future employment with the federal government. After high school, Raymond began working for the Covington Mutual Fire Insurance Company. He later worked for the U. S. Truss Company in Cincinnati. Roland recalls that Raymond worked as Christmas seasonal help with him at the Cincinnati Post Office in December, 1938.

It was around this time that Raymond became a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, either North Star SDA Church on Levasor Avenue in Covington or the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Taylor Mill.

Raymond was hired by the federal government in 1940 or 1941 to work for the General Accounting Office in Washington, DC prompting his move from Kentucky to Maryland. He later worked for the General Services Administration and had a career of 40 years with the federal government.
