Marriage Notes for Bernice Harlan and William Hill:

Henry County Local article, Henry County, Kentucky.

June 13, 1919

Weldon and Marshall Hill, who have been keeping "bach" on their farm 2-1/2 miles West of New Castle are no longer living in a womanless home. Tuesday morning when A. Sid Morgan and other neighbors of the Hill brothers look toward their home they were surprised to see a young lady on the premises stirring hither and thither and looking the mistress of all she surveyed. It developed that Weldon Hill, the elder of the two boys, had been married the evening before at 8 o'clock in La Grange without pomp and unusual ceremony, and some time between the two days they had rounded in at the Hill homestead and were already set up for business and each performing his or her part properly in their new and sacred relation.

The bride is none other than Miss Bernice Harlan, daughter of those clever persons, Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Harlan of La Grange former residents of New Castle Kentucky. The bride is a business like and sensible girl, who for five years has been associated with Ballard Brothers in a clerical capacity. She is a girl of comeliness and personal worth, and her husband should be overwhelmed with congratulations by reason of his good fortune in making good his claim upon her heart.

The Hill brothers are clever boys. They have a nice new home nearing completion with all arrangements nearly completed for the incoming governess. Why wait, thought Weldon, she might as well come in now and have the satisfaction of ordering the details. So the wedding was speeded up some. The manner in which the whole transaction was effectuated evidences the good common sense of the parties. The groom is a son of Pat Hill former clerk of Henry County now deceased. [This is incorrect. William Weldon Hill's father was Horace William Hill.] His mother is the wife of J. B. Pyles of La Grange.

Oldham Era, La Grange Kentucky, article.
June 13, 1919

Miss Bernice Harlan and Mr. Weldon Hill were married Monday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harlan. The house was decorated in roses, sweet peas, ferns and honey suckles. Miss Ruby Starks was maid of honor, and was dressed in a handsome blue chiffon, carrying a bunch of sweet peas. The bride wore a wistaria greogette crepe over crepe de chine. Mr. Jesse Harlan was groomsman. It was a pretty home wedding, none but the immediate family being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Frank Richardson, of the Methodist Church. The bridal couple left immediately after the ceremony for their home near Smithfield. Both the young people are favorites here and received many handsome, also useful presents of silverware, furniture, cut glass, household linens, etc.

Notes for Samuel O. Flood:

Comments from Rose (born Hallie Josephine Floyd Provencher): All I have on them is very vague memories. Sam died when I was 8 years old, I remember that he had lost an arm to the shoulder in a hunting accident when he was younger. He worked for L&N worked for a while in a tower (railroad crossing) at Goss Ave. Louisville. He always had a lot of health problems and died fairly young from a stroke. We always called him granddad. Hallie had her own busines, the best I remember, worked at Barbee Dress Shop for a while and then had a used clothing store on Jefferson or Market down town. She too, died at an early age. Sam and Hallie lived in several houses in Louisville that I remember: Gernert Court around 1943, later on Rawlings St. or Ave. and I think when they died they lived at 704 Ormsby St. I remember visiting them there. Hallie, Sam, and Lavinia are buried together in Evergreen Cemetery (Section 1, Lot 188 graves 4,5,&6.)
