Descendants of William and Sarah (McCullough) Hamilton

Generation No. 1

1. William<sup>1</sup> Hamilton was born Abt. 1795 in North Carolina, and died Bet. 1850 - 1860. He married Sarah McCullough. She was born Abt. 1796 in North Carolina, and died 1864.

Notes for Kirk Hamilton:

Kirk is listed in the Bible record of his sister, Caroline (Hamilton) Acre. There is no further record of him. He must have died young.

- 4            iii. Albert B. Hamilton, born Nov 14, 1822 in North Carolina.
- + 5            iv. Joseph A. Hamilton, born Nov 24, 1824 in North Carolina.

- + 7            vi. Andrew M. Hamilton, born Dec 21, 1827 in North Carolina.

- 9            viii. Julia Frances Hamilton, born Jul 27, 1832 in North Carolina. She married John N. Bradford Nov 09, 1853 in Orange Co., IN.

Notes for Julia Frances Hamilton:

Frances as either Julia's first or middle name is an educated guess. The Bible of her sister, Caroline Hamilton Acre, lists the name of a sister named Frances H. Hamilton. She clearly had a sister named Julia. The only sister could not be matched to the Bible record was Julia, so I have assumed the Frances was either her first or middle name.

Notes for Joseph L. Acre:

Obituary of Joseph L. Acre

At about 3 o'clock Sunday morning, June 13, 1897, just before dawn of that beautiful day, the spirit of Mr. Joseph Acre took its flight from the vale of tears and was borne on the pure morning air o'er the trackless path on which so many bloodwashed saints have traveled in their flight to eternal glory, there to find welcome only to those who lived in the fear of the living God.

He had been in poor health for some time and had been confined to his bed for some time. Death to him was not unexpected, neither was it feared. Mr. Acre was nearly 68 years of age. He was born in Orange County, IN, in 1829, and moved to this neighborhood when a mere child, and remained here until he was called by the Father who doeth all things well.

Mr. Acre was united in marriage to Caroline D. Hamilton in 1859; to them nine children were born, eight boys and one girl, three of whom preceded him to his final home. His widow and six children survive to mourn his loss. The children are all married, except Allie, the youngest who yet comforts his aged mother in the dreary home which death has robbed.

Mr. Acre was a Christian, having been in the service of the Lord for about 40 years. We present him not as a perfect man; for none are perfect, no not one. We mean by that he had weaknesses, but his erring was of the head and not the heart. Oh, death how little do we understand it, and how could we reflect too often on it, which is no respecter of persons, while in its onward march it so unmercifully fastens its grasp upon those who perhaps in our own view, will be missed most, and having no regard for the sorrow and heartaches left in its wake. Disregard for its victims almost causes us to rebuke it, but while in sorrow the thought comes to us, death is but a moment's separation, and to the child of God it has no terrors, but a debt we owe our creator. As we express our love for the deceased, having known him from our infancy, so long as life lasts the writer will remember the advice and good influence of the departed friend. We feel that we have been drawn nearer to the Divine Being, and would ask Him to encircle the entire bereaved family with His love. May their pathway through life be softened by divine influence, assuage and soothe the path and suffering of their hearts and reconcile them by love.

- 135 iv. Dr. Robert Ragle Acre, born Aug 09, 1895 in Shoals, Martin Co., IN; died Mar 26, 1975 in Owensboro, Daviess Co., KY. He married Beulah Irene Gibson Apr 27, 1922 in Indianapolis, Marion Co., IN; born Nov 06, 1895 in Putnam Co., IN; died Oct 25, 1990 in Owensboro, Daviess Co., KY.

Notes for Dr. Robert Ragle Acre:
Robert Ragle Acre was born in Shoals, Indiana, on August 9, 1896. When he was quite young, the family moved to Lawrence, Indiana, several miles east of Indianapolis. They lived on a farm that was later bought by the US government for Camp Atterbury. The Ragle middle name was for the doctor that delivered him.

He attended Indiana University for his undergraduate work and was a Kappa Sigma. Hogie Carmichel, who was famous for writing Stardust, was a fraternity brother of his. He was selected the all round athlete because he participated in so many sports. He learned to play golf at this time and the first year was a scratch player. After graduating from the Indiana Medical School, he did his internship at Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis. The interns got to ride the ambulances at the time of the Indy 500 and he especially liked to talk about this.

While in Indianapolis he met and married Beulah Irene Gibson who worked in a bank there. Dr. and Mrs. Acre moved to Evansville in the early 1920's where he began his practice of urology. They at first lived on Cherry Street and then the Donaldson Arms. Later they moved to the Colonial Apartments. Their daughter, Joan, was born in 1929. Another daughter had earlier died at childbirth.

From the Colonial Apartments they moved on Taylor Avenue and then to Runnymede. In the early 1940's the Acres bought a lovely two story brick home at 2311 Lincoln Avenue. Dr. Acre loved to play golf and was city champion, country club champion and Indiana Medical Association champion many times. Dr. Acre's office for many years was in the Hulman Building until he bought land on Walnut Street and built his own office exactly the way he wanted it. This land was condemned by the city in order to build the civic center. This was a blow to Dr. Acre and he never got over it. He, however, did open an office on Outer Bellemeade and continued to practice until the late 1960's. In 1972 Dr. and Mrs. Acre moved to Owensboro, Kentucky, to be near their daughter. Dr. Acre died of a stroke at the Hermitage Manor on March 26, 1976 and is placed in the mausoleum at Oak Hill Cemetery in Evansville.

Marriage Notes for Robert Acre and Beulah Gibson:

Dr. Acre Goes to
Indianapolis to Wed

Dr. R. R. Acre of the United States public health service in the city, left for Indianapolis last night, with a blush upon his face and a sensation of rice in his hair, premonitions of the happy event in his marriage to Miss Beulah Gibson, of the capital city, within the week.

For the last nine months Dr. Acre has had charge of the venerable clinic. During that period he has established himself at the Vendome hotel. Friends recently became suspicious of Dr. Acre's conduct when they discovered him wandering over the city searching for apartments. His only answer to their many inquiries was that he was tired of living in hotels.

Acre-Gibson.

The marriage of Miss Beulah Irene Gibson, daughter of Charles W. Gibson, 1244 North Illinois street, to Dr. R. R. Acre of Evansville, Ind. son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Acre, 3737 Guilford avenue, was solemnized this morning at the Sprink-Arms, with the Rev. G. M. Smith of the Roberts Park M. E. Church officiating. The altar was banked with palms, orchid sweet peas and cathedral candles. Miss Helena Harrison, harpist, played "To a Wild Rose," and the Pi Beta Phi Sorority anthem preceding the ceremony. During the reading of the service she played, "I Love You Truly." The bride wore a suit of blue poiret twill with a hat to match and carried a colonial bouquet of Aaron Ward roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Ruby Acre acted as maid of honor, and wore a suit of blue twill and a hat to match. Her flowers were orchid sweet peas. Dr. B. B. Moore acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Acre left for a wedding trip at French Lick and will be at home to their friends after May 15, at 114½ Cherry street, Evansville Ind.
