Descendants of Jesse Harlan

Generation No. 1

1. Jesse⁶ Harlan (John⁵, George⁴, Michael³ Harland, James², William¹) was born 1743 in Bradford Twp., Chester Co., PA, and died in Albemarle Co., VA. He married Sarah Harlan 10 Sep 1764 in The Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Wilmington, DE, daughter of Joseph Harlan and Edith Pyle. She was born 25 Jul 1748 in Kennet Twp., Chester Co., PA, and died in Albemarle Co., VA.

Notes for Jesse Harlan:

Jesse and Sarah immigrated from Pennsylvania to Maryland after the birth of their children and then they moved on to Albemarle Co., Virginia.

The house where Jesse was born was built about 1725 by his grandfather George. It was enlarged at least once, perhaps when John inherited it when he became 21 (1737) (or more likely, perhaps, when he married in 1740.). It was inhabited by the Harlan family until 1950 when Annie Harlan died. The house title descended through the family of Joel Harlan, the brother of John. [Source: Email message from Elgene A. Notes for Thomas Samuel Harlan:

Thomas Samuel was born at the home of his father. Thomas S. was a planter and farmer. The home place was said to have been named Glendower and sold by James White for Confederate money. It is still standing and is in use in Glendower, Va. at this time (1954). The house is dark red brick with double colonial porches at each end. The records of the sale of the place were destroyed when the courthouse at Scottsville burned to the ground. At one time there were 1800 or more acres of land and they owned 300 slaves. I have heard my grandfather (written by Elizabeth Strickler) John Bailey say that his father and grandfather would never sell a slave unless at the slave's request. The case being that he wanted to marry a slave woman owed by someone else who would not sell her. I have heard my grandfather say that only about three slaves were willing to leave the family after the Civil War, but of course they no longer had the money to take care of them, as the money they had was Confederate. The place that they moved to after leaving Glendower was called Meadowbrook and burned to the ground leaving them nothing. I have heard John Bailey speak of being terribly hungry while playing with thousand dollar bills along with his brothers. He recalled along this time of there coming a day when there was nothing in the house to eat at all and of he and his brothers trying to eat some soap. The commissary later that day gave them the last small ration of meal that would be issued. The family of Thomas S. then moved to West Virginia (Bath County) where they resided until 1881 when they moved to Henry County, Kentucky on a farm between Ghent and Warsaw. In the latter years of his life he and his wife, Mary Fleming, lived at La Grange, Kentucky, in the house where his son Edgar Leslie Harlan later lived. His wife, Mary Fleming, was his first cousin once removed.

Thomas fought on the Confederate side in the Civil War. He enlisted in the C Company, 19th Infantry Regiment, Virginia on April 17, 1861 in Scottsville, VA.

43. Virginia Tobatha⁹ Harlan (James White⁸, Joseph⁷, Jesse⁶, John⁵, George⁴, Michael³ Harland, James², William¹) was born 07 Apr 1831 in Virginia, and died 18 Oct 1909 in La Grange, Oldham Co, KY. She married George A. Thompson Abt. 1866 in Virginia. He was born Abt. 1828 in Tennessee, and died in Bowling Green, Warren Co., KY.

Notes for Virginia Tobatha Harlan:

Virginia and George Thompson were married in Virginia. He was a Confederate soldier who was wounded and taken into the home of James White Harlan to be nursed back to health. He fell in love with Tabby, as she was called, and they were married and went back to Tennessee. Later they moved to Kentucky where he died and is buried in Bowling Green, where they live in or around. When George Thompson died, Tobitha came to Anchorage, Kentucky to live with their daughter Katherine Thompson and her husband Ernest Corbin. When she died she was buried in the Valley of Rest at La Grange, Kentucky. The tombstone is no longer there, but she is in the same plot as Thomas Samuel Harlan.

The 1900 Warren Co., KY census indicates that Virginia had a total of 4 children, all of whom were living in 1900.

More About Virginia Tobatha Harlan:

Burial: Valley of Rest Cemetery, La Grange, Oldham Co., KY (no stone)

Notes for George A. Thompson:

The 1900 Warren Co., KY census lists George as being three years older than Virginia which would make him born about 1828. The census lists him as being 59 years old in 1900 which would make him being born about 1841. The date of Virginia's birth should here is probably correct since it came out of the Harlan family bible. That would mean that George was older than indicated in the 1900 census.

Notes for James Forbes Harlan:

J. F. Harlan's Unusual Professions

Editor's Note: The following is a compilation of information from two biographical sketches written by John B. Harlan, subject of the story titled "John Bailey Harlan Was Shrewd Detective" on page 8 of the Spring 2004 Harlan Record. Juanita Creighton, of Richmond, Va., submitted the detective piece and the two sketches compiled here. John B. Harlan was the brother of her grandfather, Howard Hinton Harlan (7956iii).

One of our Harlan cousins, James Forbes Harlan (#7956i), had some unusual professions. His brother, L&N Railroad detective John B. Harlan (#7956v), provided the following information.

Born in Albemarle County, Va., on July 12, 1851, James moved with his family shortly after the Civil War to Mountain Grove, Bath County, Va., where they resided in a cabin on property owned by Colonel A.C.L. Gatewood, of Confederate fame. The farm was situated at the fork of Little Back Creek and Big Back Creek.

“Mountain Grove was a little scattering village consisting of a Post Office, Blacksmith and Wheelwright shop, and a Manufacturing Mill belonging to old Colonel Gatewood,” brother John recalled. It was located with Warm Spring Mountain to the east and the Allegheny Mountains to the west. “The little valley stretched up Big Back Creek perhaps eight or ten miles and ranged from two hundred and fifty feet to half a mile in width. In that section at that time, the mountains abounded with game, bear, deer, wolves, wild cats, panthers, catamount, wild turkey, pheasants, and, in fact all manner of game, and our chief occupation while in that section was hunting, trapping, and fishing,” John wrote.

In 1873 or '74, the family moved to Greenbrier County, crossing the Allegheny Mountains in ox carts. They lived for about a year on Captain William Reed's farm, about a mile and a half northwest of Frankfort. They then lived for three years on the Lewis Creigh farm, then moved to Monroe County, to a section known as Swopes Knobs in the mountains near Johnson's Cross Roads, about 15 miles from union. Later the family moved to Henry County, Ky.

During the years that James lived in Greenbrier and Monroe counties, he worked most of the time as a “professional hacker of brush” on the mountains near Cranberry Glades in Pocahontas County, according to his brother.

“While so engaged he came in contact with a Professor of Music from Richmond, Va., L.J. Whitt, who was also a Professor of Penmanship,” John continued, “and the two became very much interested in each other, and Professor Whitt induced Mr. Harlan to travel with him and give music lessons and also take lessons in penmanship from him. They traveled together for two years or more, making quite a success in their profession. After Professor Whitt had returned to Richmond from West Virginia, Mr. Harlan took up his profession of teaching penmanship as well as giving music lessons on banjo and violin, more especially on the banjo.” James became well known by traveling around to the crossroads school houses and teaching music and penmanship.

James Harlan's first banjo was a large gourd strung with horse hair, made for him by his grandfather's, servant, known as Uncle Lewis, who drove the family carriage.

“After young Harlan got so he could strike a few tunes, there was a young lady in the neighborhood, Miss Mollie Clark, who took an interest in him, and being a good performer on the banjo herself, she taught him all the fundamental principles that she knew concerning banjo picking,” John wrote.

He was considered a “very great entertainer,” according to his brother, who added, “Young Harlan was always ready to play for the old fashion dances or help entertain the youngsters in the several communities in which he lived, but never charged anything for this service. It was always rendered cheerfully. However, he made a nominal charge for lessons in penmanship and music.”

The family moved to Henry County, Ky, near New Castle, in 1881. In Kentucky, James Harlan continued to teach music and penmanship for a number of years, teaching in Indiana, Ohio, Arkansas, and Tennessee as well.

Around 1915, he began to work for the railroad in Alabama, Tennessee, and Kentucky. In 1927, the year John Harlan wrote his sketch, his brother was located in Covington, Ky., and had been working for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company for three years. He was planning to travel back to Virginia to participate in the Old Fiddler's Contest at Ronceverte.

Notes for William Edgar Harlan:

Willie was murdered in Oklahoma. One of Willie's employees was arrested and jailed. Willie paid the employee's bail and fine and when the employee was informed that those funds would be withheld from his wages, he drew a pistol and killed Willie. [As told by Harry Trent Hutcheson, August 1998] William's tombstone gives his date of death as 1912. He was not buried in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville, Kentucky, until April 1913.

Killed in Oklahama

William E. Harlan, Formerly of Louisville, and Nephew of Captain J. B. Harlan and Mr. Ed Harlan of this City, Shot by Negro Employee

The news of the killing of Mr. William E. Harlan, of Muskogee, Oklahoma, was a shock to his friends here, where he and his sister had often visited. He was a nephew of Capt. J. B. and Mr. Ed Harlan, of this City.

Mr. Harlan was shot by a negro farm hand in a dispute over some money which the negro owed him and which he was about to hold out of his wages.

Mr. Harlan left Louisville about three years ago to engage in farming in Oklahoma. He is survived by his wife, Miss Ada Shelton, of Stanford, Ky.; a daughter; his mother, Mrs. Ida Harlan, and a sister, Mrs. Harry Trent.

The negro who committed the crime has been captured.

The body was brought to Louisville for burial, and the funeral services were held Thursday. Mrs. Harlan could not accompany her husband's remains, as their little daughter had just undergone an operation when her father was killed.

Notes for Ada Shelton:

Marriage Notes for Bernice Harlan and William Hill:
Henry County Local article, Henry County, Kentucky.
June 13, 1919

Weldon and Marshall Hill, who have been keeping "bach" on their farm 2-1/2 miles West of New Castle are no longer living in a womanless home. Tuesday morning when A. Sid Morgan and other neighbors of the Hill brothers look toward their home they were surprised to see a young lady on the premises stirring hither and thither and looking the mistress of all she surveyed. It developed that Weldon Hill, the elder of the two boys, had been married the evening before at 8 o'clock in La Grange without pomp and unusual ceremony, and some time between the two days they had rounded in at the Hill homestead and were already set up for business and each performing his or her part properly in their new and sacred relation.

The bride is none other than Miss Bernice Harlan, daughter of those clever persons, Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Harlan of La Grange former residents of New Castle Kentucky. The bride is a business like and sensible girl, who for five years has been associated with Ballard Brothers in a clerical capacity. She is a girl of comeliness and personal worth, and her husband should be overwhelmed with congratulations by reason of his good fortune in making good his claim upon her heart.

The Hill brothers are clever boys. They have a nice new home nearing completion with all arrangements nearly completed for the incoming governess. Why wait, thought Weldon, she might as well come in now and have the satisfaction of ordering the details. So the wedding was speeded up some. The manner in which the whole transaction was effectuated evidences the good common sense of the parties. The groom is a son of Pat Hill former clerk of Henry County now deceased. [This is incorrect. William Weldon Hill's father was Horace William Hill.] His mother if the wife of J. B. Pyles of La Grange.

Oldham Era, La Grange Kentucky, article.
June 13, 1919

Miss Bernice Harlan and Mr. Weldon Hill were married Monday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harlan. The house was decorated in roses, sweet peas, ferns and honey suckles. Miss Ruby Starks was maid of honor, and was dressed in a handsome blue chiffon, carrying a bunch of sweet peas. The bride wore a wistaria greogette crepe over crepe de chine. Mr. Jesse Harlan was groomsman. It was a pretty home wedding, none but the immediate family being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Frank Richardson, of the Methodist Church. The bridal couple left immediately after the ceremony for their home near Smithfield. Both the young people are favorites here and received many handsome, also useful presents of silverware, furniture, cut glass, household linens, etc.
