Notes for Joseph Andrew Thomas:

Joseph Andrew Thomas was born in Putnam Co., Indiana where he spent his boyhood days until the out break of the Civil war when he served in the Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He was captured by the enemy at Marks Mills, while with Steele, while on detail for supplies, and he was later sent to Camp Ford, Tyler, Texas. He was placed in a stockade there and retains eleven months when he was exchanged in March 1865. He was compelled to march three hundred miles on short rations, in reaching Tyler. He relates that his Christmas dinner that year consisted of ox tail soup. When he was finally liberated, he was much reduced in flesh, but he never regretted his service to his country.

After his marriage, Joseph settled near Clinton, Putnam Co., Indiana, near where his brother James lived and remained there for fourteen years, getting a good start. Then he bought a place at Morton, Putnam Co., Indiana and a farm in Russell, Putnam Co., Indiana. He received one hundred forty-two acres of his father's farm and he owned over five hundred acres at one time.

Joseph was a good Democrat but no politician. He was known to be a man who was deeply interested in the welfare of his neighbors, with whom he was uniformly popular because of his honesty.

Notes for Oscar Thomas:

Oscar was superintendent of the schools in Putnam Co., Indiana. He was educated in the primitive schools of his native community and devoted to his life of farming, becoming one of the leading agriculturists of Madison Township, Putnam Co., Indiana. The Thomas family is of Irish stock, the lineage of which may be traced back to 1685, since which remote period many members of this historic family have distinguished themselves in various walks of life.

Oscar was reared on the home farm, which he worked when old enough during the summer months, devoting the winter to study in the public schools of Madison Township. Being ambitious to become familiar with the classics and higher sciences, he continued his schooling by entering Central Normal College at Danville, after which he took a course in De Pauw University, where he made a splendid record and came out well qualified to enter his chosen life work - teaching, which he began and which he has since followed, teaching for a period of thirteen years in townships of Madison, Mill Creek, Monroe and Franklin. Of this time, three years was spent in the high school in Brick Chapel, giving eminent satisfaction from the first. He soon became known throughout the county and his services were in great demand, having so discharged his duties as to win the highest encomiums of the superintendent and boards of the various schools where he was employed, to say nothing of his popularity with the pupils under his charge and the general public. In 1903 he was elected county superintendent of schools and so faithfully and satisfactorily did he fill this important trust that he was re-elected in 1907.

Oscar had no children.

- 191 ii. Beulah Irene Gibson, born November 06, 1895 in Putnam Co., IN; died October 25, 1990 in Owensboro, Daviess Co., KY. She married Dr. Robert Ragle Acre April 27, 1922 in Indianapolis, IN; born August 09, 1895 in Shoals, Martin Co., IN; died March 26, 1975 in Owensboro, Daviess Co., KY.

Notes for Beulah Irene Gibson:

Beulah Irene Gibson was born at Roachdale, Indiana, on November 6, 1896. The family moved to Crawfordsville, Indiana and lived near Wabash College. Her father operated a grocery store. After her mother left her father, he moved Beulah and her brother Ernest to Indianapolis. She attended Indiana University and was a Pi Beta Phi. Later she worked in a bank in Indianapolis and met Dr. Acre during this time. Mrs. Acre did beautiful handwork and spent many hours rolling and whipping lace on finer linen. She was a member of the board of the Christian Home, a home for unwed mothers. She was on the Altar Guild at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Cansta was here favorite card game and she had several friends that she played with. Also Dr. and Mrs. Acre belonged to a poker club with several other doctors and their wives. In 1972 she moved to Owensboro to be with he daughter. She lived in two apartments before moving into her daughter's house 1987. She died at Mercy Hospital in Owensboro on October 30, 1990 and is in the mausoleum at Oak Hill Cemetery in Evansville.

Burial: Oak Hill Cemetery Mausoleum, Evansville, IN

Notes for Dr. Robert Ragle Acre:

Robert Ragle Acre was born in Shoals, Indiana, on August 9, 1896. When he was quite young, the family moved to Lawrence, Indiana, several miles east of Indianapolis. They lived on a farm that was later bought by the US government for Camp Atterbury. The Ragle middle name was for the doctor that delivered him.

He attended Indiana University for his undergraduate work and was a Kappa Sigma. Hogie Carmichel, who was famous for writing Stardust, was a fraternity brother of his. He was selected the all round athlete because he participated in so many sports. He learned to play golf at this time and the first year was a scratch player. After graduating from the Indiana Medical School, he did his internship at Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis. The interns got to ride the ambulances at the time of the Indy 500 and he especially liked to talk about this.

While in Indianapolis he met and married Beulah Irene Gibson who worked in a bank there. Dr. and Mrs. Acre moved to Evansville in the early 1920's where he began his practice of urology. They at first lived on Cherry Street and then the Donaldson Arms. Later they moved to the Colonial Apartments. Their daughter, Joan, was born in 1929. Another daughter had earlier died at childbirth.

From the Colonial Apartments they moved on Taylor Avenue and then to Runnymede. In the early 1940's the Acres bought a lovely two story brick home at 2311 Lincoln Avenue. Dr. Acre loved to play golf and was city champion, country club champion and Indiana Medical Association champion many times. Dr. Acre's office for many years was in the Hulman Building until he bought land on Walnut Street and built his own office exactly the way he wanted it. This land was condemned by the city in order to build the civic center. This was a blow to Dr. Acre and he never got over it. He, however, did open an office on Outer Bellemeade and continued to practice until the late 1960's. In 1972 Dr. and Mrs. Acre moved to Owensboro, Kentucky, to be near their daughter. Dr. Acre died of a stroke at the Hermitage Manor on March 26, 1976 and is placed in the mausoleum at Oak Hill Cemetery in Evansville.

Marriage Notes for Beulah Gibson and Robert Acre:

Dr. Acre Goes to

Indianapolis to Wed

Dr. R. R. Acre of the United States public health service in the city, left for Indianapolis last night, with a blush upon his face and a sensation of rice in his hair, premonitions of the happy event in his marriage to Miss Beulah Gibson, of the capital city, within the week.

For the last nine months Dr. Acre has had charge of the venereal clinic. During that period he has established himself at the Vendome hotel. Friends recently became suspicious of Dr. Acre's conduct when they discovered him wandering over the city searching for apartments. His only answer to their many inquiries was that he was tired of living in hotels.

Acre-Gibson.

The marriage of Miss Beulah Irene Gibson, daughter of Charles W. Gibson, 1244 North Illinois street, to Dr. R. R. Acre of Evansville, Ind. son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Acre, 3737 Guilford avenue, was solemnized this morning at the Sprink-Arms, with the Rev. G. M. Smith of the Roberts Park M. E. Church officiating. The altar was banked with palms, orchid sweet peas and cathedral candles. Miss Helena Harrison, harpist, played "To a Wild Rose," and the Pi Beta Phi Sorority anthem preceding the ceremony. During the reading of the service she played, "I Love You Truly." The bride wore a suit of blue poiret twill with a hat to match and carried a colonial bouquet of Aaron Ward roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Ruby Acre acted as maid of honor, and wore a suit of blue twill and a hat to match. Her flowers were orchid sweet peas. Dr. B. B. Moore acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Acre left for a wedding trip at French Lick and will be at home to their friends after May 15, at 114½ Cherry street, Evansville Ind.
