

State News

Jack Graves, of Fayette county, sold 30 export cattle to Jonas Weil at 6 1/2c.

An owl measuring seven feet from tip to tip was recently killed near Barbourville.

Robert Spencer, aged 82 years, and Mrs. Nancy Cravans, aged 74, were married in McLean county.

Mrs. George Satterfield, of Trigg county, is the mother of eight children at the age of 28 years. She was married at 15.

At Dawson Springs five women visitors at the Springs, were run down on a trestle by an Illinois Central freight train.

Henry Ellis, of Henry county, sold 27 lambs to A. L. Hill, of Shelbyville, that averaged 100 pounds, for $6.10 per hundred.

Belle Meade, the most famous of all American breeding farms, will pass into history in another week. Next year it would have celebrated its centennial.

B. F. Richardson, of Dubuque, Iowa, reports to the American Sheep Breeder the sale of the fleece from his $700 Angora buck, "Lazarous," at $1.00 per pound.

Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota are in the midst of the greatest harvest ever known. The cash realization from wheat, oats, flax and corn, which crop is full of promise, is placed at $189,430,000. Barley will add $3,000,000.

The corn crop in Owen County was never better. Any old field,

Death of H. A. Hicks.

Harvey Allen Hicks was born July 19th, 1830, and raised near Russell's Cave, Fayette county, Kentucky, died at his residence near Richwood, Boone county, Kentucky, August 18, 1902, aged 72 years, 1 month.

He came to Richwood, Boone county, Kentucky, in 1854, was married to Sallie J. Williams and settled on the Mevales farm, where he remained until his death. In 1868 his wife died, leaving no children. In 1870 he was married to Sallie S. Stansifer, daughter of the late Abraham Stansifer. To this union there were born five children, three of whom remain: Mrs. Lizzie Galnes, wife of Leo Galnes, Sam C. Hicks and Mrs. Sallie B. Garrison, wife of Elzie Garrison.

When Mr. Hicks came to Boone county he had only $1,000. He has bought and paid for 850 acres of the finest land in Boone county, much of which cost a high price. His judgment on fine stock was, perhaps, unsurpassed by any man in Kentucky, always buying the best and so treating it as to make it the best for market. The county has lost one of its best citizens and farmers as well as financiers.

His funeral was conducted by L. Johnson, of Walton, at his late residence, and the remains were laid to rest in Richwood cemetery in the midst of an immense concourse of friends and relatives. To his wife and children the most tender sympathy is extended.
L. JOHNSON.
Walton, Ky., Aug. 23d.

During the fair Miss Pearl Crisler, of Petersburg, got her grip, a suit case, exchanged for another, in which was a lady's dress, a gentleman's shirt and a little boy's waist. In hers was a black skirt, a white skirt, a gingham dress and some underwear. The exchange was made in some manner at Cahill's livery stable. She would be glad to exchange back.

The news reaches this office from

Notice
The Taxpayers hereby notified will be at the select taxes for Florence, Se Verona, Sep Walton, Sep Petersburg, Walton, Sept Bellevue, Se Big Bone, Se Rabbit Hash Bullittsville, Constance, S Beaver Lick, Gunpowder, Richwood, O Hebron, Ooto This is my f taxes, and I mu and County, De save penalty at your property, pay your taxes!