State of Kentucky }
County of Gallatin } 3^d Feb.

On this third day of February A.D. one thousand eight hundred and Fifty two personally appeared before me, a Justice of the Peace within and for the County and State aforesaid William Hicks, age Fifty Eight years, a resident of the said County of Gallatin and State of Kentucky - who being duly sworn according to law, declares that he is the identical William Hicks, who was a private in the Company, commanded by Captain John Wyatt in the first Regiment of Kentucky Mounted Volunteer Militia, commanded by Colonel George Trotter in the war with Great Britain, declared by the United States on the 18th day of June A.D. 1812.

That he volunteered in the County of Fayette State of Kentucky, as he now recollects about the middle of July 1813, for the term of three months, and continued in actual service in said war for the term of about ninety days, and was honorably discharged at a place called Cananicks, as he now remembers sometime in the latter part of October or the early part of November A.D. 1813, had a written discharge but the same has long since been lost. He therefore refers to the muster rolls of his said Company for proof of his services as aforesaid.

He further states that he has not rec^d any bounty land for said service, nor does he expect any under any other act of Congress than the one under which this application is made.

He makes this Declaration for the purpose of obtaining the bounty land, to which he may be entitled under the "act granting bounty land to certain officers and soldiers, who have been engaged in the military service of the United States" passed September 28th 1850.
