1. JESSE¹ HARLAN was born in 1743 in Bradford, Chester Co., Pennsylvania. He died after 1785 in Albemarle Co., Virginia. He married Sarah Harlan (daughter of Joseph Harlan and Edith Pyle) on 10 Sep 1764 in Wilmington, New Castle Co., Delaware (The Holy Trinity Episcopal Church). She was born on 25 Jul 1748 in Kennett Square, Chester Co., Pennsylvania. She died after 1785 in Albemarle Co., Virginia.

Notes for Jesse Harlan:

Jesse and Sarah immigrated from Pennsylvania to Maryland after the birth of their children and then they moved on to Albemarle Co., Virginia.

The house where Jesse was born was built about 1725 by his grandfather George. It was enlarged at least once, perhaps when John inherited it when he became 21 (1737) (or more likely, perhaps, when he married in 1740.). It was inhabited by the Harlan family until 1950 when Annie Harlan died. The house title descended through the family of Joel Harlan, the brother of John. [Source: Email message from Elgene A. Smith]

Jesse Harlan, a son of John and grandson of George, married his third cousin, Sarah Harlan, a daughter of Joseph and a granddaughter of Joshua. Jesse was born about 1743, in Bradford Township, Chester, Pennsylvania. Sarah was born July 25, 1748 in Kennet Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania.

After the birth of their children they moved to Maryland and then onward to Albemarle County, Virginia, where they both died and were buried. Jesse and Sarah were married September 10, 1764 in an Episcopal ceremony at Holy Trinity (Old Swedes) Church, Wilmington, Delaware. It is by this marriage that later descendants are descendent from both George and Michael Harlan. Jesse and Sarah had five children, including including Joseph and Jesse, who are both in the direct line of ancestors as a result of the marriage of first cousins once removed - Thomas Samuel Harlan, son of James White Harlan, grandson of Joseph Harlan, and great grandson of Jesse and Sarah, and Mary Fleming Harlan, daughter of Jesse and granddaughter of Jesse and Sarah Harlan.

Notes for Thomas Samuel Harlan:

Thomas Samuel was born at the home of his father. Thomas S. was a planter and farmer. The home place was said to have been named Glendower and sold by James White for Confederate money. It is still standing and is in use in Glendower, VA at this time (1954). The house is dark red brick with double colonial porches at each end. The records of the sale of the place were destroyed when the courthouse at Scottsville burned to the ground. At one time there were 1800 or more acres of land and they owned 300 slaves. I have heard my grandfather (written by Elizabeth Strickler) John Bailey say that his father and grandfather would never sell a slave unless at the slave's request. The case being that he wanted to marry a slave woman owed by someone else who would not sell her. I have heard my grandfather say that only about three slaves were willing to leave the family after the Civil War, but of course they no longer had the money to take care of them, as the money they had was Confederate. The place that they moved to after leaving Glendower was called Meadowbrook and burned to the ground leaving them nothing. I have heard John Bailey speak of being terribly hungry while playing with thousand dollar bills along with his brothers. He recalled along this time of there coming a day when there was nothing in the house to eat at all and of he and his brothers trying to eat some soap. The commissary later that day gave them the last small ration of meal that would be issued. The family of Thomas S. then moved to West Virginia (Bath County) where they resided until 1881 when they moved to Henry County, Kentucky on a farm between Ghent and Warsaw. In the latter years of his life he and his wife, Mary Fleming, lived at La Grange, Kentucky, in the house where his son Edgar Leslie Harlan later lived. His wife, Mary Fleming, was his first cousin once removed.

Thomas fought on the Confederate side in the Civil War. He enlisted in the C Company, 19th Infantry Regiment, Virginia on April 17, 1861 in Scottsville, VA

Obituary

Harlan. - Our beloved friend and neighbor, Thomas S. Harlan, lives today only in the hearts of friends, and indeed tenderly enshrined is he there. When worn and weary with life's afflictions, he laid down its burden to be clothed upon with immortality.

An exchange of a body full of disease for one glorified and immortal is a happy exchange, and enriches by far the receiver, and paints its lilies of hope on the tender, susceptible tablets of the hear, and is harmonious blending teacher Christ the sinners, the one who, with ransomed love, breaks the fetters of sin and gives immortal beauty and freedom to the spirit of man.

The subject of this sketch, loved and honored by all, first beheld the light of day in a palatial home in Albemarle county, Va., the day of his birth being July 21, 1829. He came of a family of noble ancestry, rocked in the luxury, the slave him and faithfully did his bidding. Reverses later in life overtook him, consequently acquainting him with more than one side of life. He served four years in the Civil War, and under the stars and stripes fought a valiant fight for the Confederacy,. He married to his surviving wife May 5, 195-, and nearly fifty years of connubial was their happy portion. There was born to them seven children - six sons and one daughter, the latter having died in infancy. There are left the faithful wife, the dutiful sons, and an affectionate sister, to morn their loss. Bro. Harlan united with the Christian Church in Buckner, Ky., five years ago, and was baptized by Bro. W. T. Wells. While always a good man, strictly moral in his habits of life, yet since confessing Christ, he had been faithful and devoted to the church. He was a true husband, a noble brother and indulgent father, a typical neighbor, a faithful friend. God bless and direct the lingering feet in the way of righteousness, and the pearly gates at last to stand, and join hands and hearts as on unbroken family.

Notes for Thomas Samuel Harlan:

Thomas Samuel was born at the home of his father. Thomas S. was a planter and farmer. The home place was said to have been named Glendower and sold by James White for Confederate money. It is still standing and is in use in Glendower, VA at this time (1954). The house is dark red brick with double colonial porches at each end. The records of the sale of the place were destroyed when the courthouse at Scottsville burned to the ground. At one time there were 1800 or more acres of land and they owned 300 slaves. I have heard my grandfather (written by Elizabeth Strickler) John Bailey say that his father and grandfather would never sell a slave unless at the slave's request. The case being that he wanted to marry a slave woman owed by someone else who would not sell her. I have heard my grandfather say that only about three slaves were willing to leave the family after the Civil War, but of course they no longer had the money to take care of them, as the money they had was Confederate. The place that they moved to after leaving Glendower was called Meadowbrook and burned to the ground leaving them nothing. I have heard John Bailey speak of being terribly hungry while playing with thousand dollar bills along with his brothers. He recalled along this time of there coming a day when there was nothing in the house to eat at all and of he and his brothers trying to eat some soap. The commissary later that day gave them the last small ration of meal that would be issued. The family of Thomas S. then moved to West Virginia (Bath County) where they resided until 1881 when they moved to Henry County, Kentucky on a farm between Ghent and Warsaw. In the latter years of his life he and his wife, Mary Fleming, lived at La Grange, Kentucky, in the house where his son Edgar Leslie Harlan later lived. His wife, Mary Fleming, was his first cousin once removed.

Thomas fought on the Confederate side in the Civil War. He enlisted in the C Company, 19th Infantry Regiment, Virginia on April 17, 1861 in Scottsville, VA

Obituary

Harlan. - Our beloved friend and neighbor, Thomas S. Harlan, lives today only in the hearts of friends, and indeed tenderly enshrined is he there. When worn and weary with life's afflictions, he laid down its burden to be clothed upon with immortality.

An exchange of a body full of disease for one glorified and immortal is a happy exchange, and enriches by far the receiver, and paints its lilies of hope on the tender, susceptible tablets of the hear, and is harmonious blending teacher Christ the sinners, the one who, with ransomed love, breaks the fetters of sin and gives immortal beauty and freedom to the spirit of man.

The subject of this sketch, loved and honored by all, first beheld the light of day in a palatial home in Albemarle county, Va., the day of his birth being July 21, 1829. He came of a family of noble ancestry, rocked in the luxury, the slave him and faithfully did his bidding. Reverses later in life overtook him, consequently acquainting him with more than one side of life. He served four years in the Civil War, and under the stars and stripes fought a valiant fight for the Confederacy. He married to his surviving wife May 5, 195-, and nearly fifty years of connubial was their happy portion. There was born to them seven children - six sons and one daughter, the latter having died in infancy. There are left the faithful wife, the dutiful sons, and an affectionate sister, to mourn their loss. Bro. Harlan united with the Christian Church in Buckner, Ky., five years ago, and was baptized by Bro. W. T. Wells. While always a good man, strictly moral in his habits of life, yet since confessing Christ, he had been faithful and devoted to the church. He was a true husband, a noble brother and indulgent father, a typical neighbor, a faithful friend. God bless and direct the lingering feet in the way of righteousness, and the pearly gates at last to stand, and join hands and hearts as on unbroken family.

34. VIRGINIA TABITHA⁴ HARLAN (James White³, Joseph², Jesse¹) was born on 07 Apr 1844 in Albemarle Co., Virginia. She died on 18 Oct 1909 in La Grange, Oldham Co., Kentucky. She married George Alexander Thompson about 1866 in Virginia. He was born on 14 Jan 1842 in Dixon Co., Tennessee. He died on 20 Jun 1919 in Wilson Co Tennessee.

Notes for Virginia Tabitha Harlan:

Virginia and George Thompson were married in Virginia. He was a Confederate soldier who was wounded and taken into the home of James White Harlan to be nursed back to health. He fell in love with Tabby, as she was called, and they were married and went back to Tennessee. Later they moved to Kentucky where he died and is buried in Bowling Green, where they live in or around. When George Thompson died, Tabitha came to Anchorage, Kentucky to live with their daughter Katherine Thompson and her husband Ernest Corbin. When she died she was buried in the Valley of Rest at La Grange, Kentucky. The tombstone is no longer there, but she is in the same plot as Thomas Samuel Harlan.

The 1900 Warren Co., KY census indicates that Virginia had a total of 4 children, all of whom were living in 1900. In 1900 George and Virginia, along with their sons John and George, were living with their daughter, Virginia Dayton.

Notes for George Alexander Thompson:

The 1900 Warren Co., KY census lists George as being three years older than Virginia which would make him born about 1828. The census lists him as being 59 years old in 1900 which would make him being born about 1841. The date of Virginia's birth should here is probably correct since it came out of the Harlan family bible. That would mean that George was older than

J. F. Harlan's Unusual Professions

Editor's Note: The following is a compilation of information from two biographical sketches written by John B. Harlan, subject of the story titled John Bailey Harlan was Shrewd Detective on page 8 of the Spring 2004 Harlan Record. Juanita Creighton, of Richmond, Henrico Co., VA, submitted the detective piece and the two sketches compiled here. John B. Harlan was the brother of her grandfather, Howard Hinton Harlan.

One of our Harlan cousins, James Forbes Harlan, had some unusual professions. His brother, L&N Railroad detective John B. Harlan, provided the following information.

Born in Albemarle County, VA, on July 12, 1851, James moved with his family shortly after the Civil War to Mountain Grove, Bath County, VA, where they resided in a cabin on property owned by Colonel A.C.L. Gatewood, of Confederate fame. The farm was situated at the fork of Little Back Creek and Big Back Creek.

Mountain Grove was a little scattering village consisting of a Post Office, Blacksmith and wheelwright shop, and a Manufacturing Mill belonging to old Colonel Gatewood borhter, John recalled. It was located with Warm Spring

Mountain to the east and the Allegheny Mountains to the west. The little valley stretched up Big Back Creek perhaps eight or ten miles and ranged from two hundred and fifty feet to half a mile in width. In that section at that time, the mountains abounded with game, bear, deer, wolves, wild cats, panthers, catamount, wild turkey, pheasants, and, in fact all manner of game, and our chief occupation while in that section was hunting, trapping, and fishing.

In 1873 or 74, the family moved to Greenbrier County, crossing the Allegheny Mountains in ox carts. They lived for about a year on Captain William Reed's farm, about a mile and a half northwest of Frankfort. They then lived for three years on the Lewis Creigh farm, then moved to Monroe County, to a section known as Swopes Knobs in the mountains near Johnson's Cross Roads, about 15 miles from union. Later the family moved to Henry County, Ky.

During the years that James lived in Greenbrier and Monroe counties, he worked most of the time as a professional hacker of brush on the mountains near Cranberry Glades in Pocahontas County, according to his brother.

While so engaged he came in contact with a Professor of Music from Richmond, Henrico Co., VA, L.J. Whitt, who was also a Professor of Penmanship, John continued, and the two became very much interested in each other, and Professor Whitt induced Mr. Harlan to travel with him and give music lessons and also take lessons in penmanship from him. They traveled together for two years or more, making quite a success in their profession. After Professor Whitt had returned to Richmond from West Virginia, Mr. Harlan took up his profession of teaching penmanship as well as giving music lessons on banjo and violin, more especially on the banjo, James became well known by traveling around to the crossroads school houses and teaching music and penmanship.

James Harlan's first banjo was a large gourd strung with horse hair, made for him by his grandfather's servant, known as Uncle Lewis, who drove the family carriage.

After young Harlan got so he could strike a few tunes, there was a young lady in the neighborhood, Miss Mollie Clark, who took an interest in him, and being a good performer on the banjo herself, she taught him all the fundamental principles that she knew concerning banjo picking,

He was considered a very special entertainer according to his brother, who added, "Young Harlan was always ready to play for the old fashion dances or help entertain the youngsters in the several communities in which he lived, but never charged anything for this service. It was always rendered cheerfully. However, he made a nominal charge for lessons in penmanship and music."

The family moved to Henry County, Ky, near New Castle, in 1881. In Kentucky, James Harlan continued to teach music and penmanship for a number of years, teaching in Indiana, Ohio, Arkansas, and Tennessee as well.

Around 1915, he began to work for the railroad in Alabama, Tennessee, and Kentucky. In 1927, the year John Harlan wrote his sketch, his brother was located in Covington, Ky., and had been working for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company for three years. He was planning to travel back to Virginia to participate in the Old Fiddler's Contest at Ronceverte.

James Forbes Harlan and Ida Lena Hancock had the following children:

Edgar Leslie Harlan and Margaret Beall Flood had the following children:

- i. MABEL⁶ HARLAN (daughter of Edgar Leslie Harlan and Margaret Beall Flood) was born on 11 May 1889 in New Castle, Henry Co., Kentucky. She died on 01 Feb 1902 in New Castle, Henry Co., Kentucky.

Notes for Mabel Harlan:

Mabel Harlan

One of the saddest deaths that has occurred in our midst in years was that of Mabel Harlan, the fourteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harlan. She passed into the "better land" on Saturday, February 1, and the remains were buried next day in the New Castle Cemetery. During the summer she had typhoid fever, and a short while ago she had scarlet fever. Naturally these left her in an enfeebled condition, so that the after effects in connection with something like la grippe were more than her vital powers could stand. She was a very bright child, with an affectionate disposition, and it is greatly to be regretted that one so lovely should have a life so brief. It is well with the child beyond peradventure: and no doubt what seems to the family an irreparable loss will prove to be a blessing. The hallowed memories of her stay in the household will be an inspiration to higher aims in life and eternity.

Horace Edgar "Ed" Hill was born near Smithfield, Kentucky. He was born in what we used as the dining room in the house his father built. The house was built to by his father and his father's brother, Marshall Tyler Hill, known as Rip, before his father and mother were married. Ed was fifth generation to live and farm on that the land. The farm he grew up on was part of the original farm purchased by his great great grandmother, Clarissa (Holloway) Hill when she move to Henry County from Virginia after a short stop in Fayette County, Kentucky.

Horace Edgar was married first to Jane Pardo and had one son, Forest Weldon Hill. They divorced when Forest Weldon, known as Mickey, was very young. After his divorce, he married Betty Jean Washburn, from Carroll County, Kentucky, in 1952. Ed and Betty Jean married shortly after Ed's mother, Bernice (Harlan) Hill, died of the breast cancer. They had two children Horace Edgar Hill, Jr. and Bernice Hill Southworth. Three of his four grandchildren (Elizabeth Hill, Stephen Hill and Wesley Southworth) were born before his death. His fourth grandchild, Hagan Southworth, was born less than a year after he died.

He farmed almost his entire life, except for a short period of time when he worked at the Bourbon Stockyards in Louisville, Kentucky during the late 1950's. He had a disagreement with his father, William Weldon Hill, concerning the sharing of income from the farm. Ultimately his father gave in and he returned to the farm. Later, with the agreement of his brother, Horace Edgar bought the farm from his father. In the meantime, he also bought another farm that adjoined his father's farm on the back.

Ed served as a magistrate in Henry County for many years. He won his first election after a recount of the votes. He spent most of his years as magistrate fighting to enact zoning laws in the county. He died while still in office and after zoning was passed.

Ed died at age 66 at Jewish Hospital in Louisville, Kentucky in 1990 during his second coronary bypass operation. His first coronary bypass was approximately 10 years earlier.

Juanita Graham Creighton entered into the divine presence of the Lord on Wednesday morning November 11th. In her heavenly home Juanita is rejoicing in the company of so many of those Graham children we all knew and loved. She has been reunited with her dear father "Pappy" whose company she missed so much in recent days. She is also likely meeting the many ancestors whose lives she chronicled and celebrated.

Juanita has fond memories of the farm she grew up on, and the little general store her father ran. This general store also served as a gas station for those early automobiles. Juanita helped hand pump gas into a glass ball to measure its purchase. Juanita lived through the Great Depression. She still remembers her father telling the family that the banks had gone under, and that they had lost all their money. They survived because there abiding faith in Gods provision even in hard times. The also had the blessing of the farm and each other. In the depression years; Juanita's father and her older brothers worked to cut wood in a saw mill they built on the property, they also sold wood and produce to Homestead in Hot Springs, Virginia.

They would start a family in Richmond which included three children, Debbie, Tommy and Mark. They joined Grove Avenue Baptist Church were Juanita sang in the original TV choir for what become known as The Victory Hour television program.

Juanita and Tommy's home in Richmond soon became a center of family activity for Juanita's family. Her parents, siblings and their children would be right at home in Juanita's custom built house on Thom Road. The house itself was designed by Juanita and was the venue for wedding receptions and special family occasions. Juanita's marriage to Tommy ended in divorce in after a little more than 10 years of marriage.

Eventually she would meet a handsome and kind engineer working for Gould's pumps. They both worked in the same office building. A friendship became a romance and the romance became a happy marriage that lasted nearly 27 years.

Obituary for Thomas Rothchild

Thomas Harlan Rothchild was born on March 5, 1923, in St. Paul, Minnesota, and died on February 14, 2012 in Ellijay, Georgia, after a long illness. He was pre-deceased by his wife Barbara after 65 years of marriage. He is survived by his son John and daughter Melanie; his sister June Vernon; his brothers Ken and Lee; loving grandchildren Scott Erker, Ann Erker Nicocelli, Chauncey, Sascha, and Berns Rothchild; great grandchildren, Smith Rothchild, Owen Erker, Peyton Erker & Sofia Nicocelli; nieces and nephews; grand nieces and nephews.

Tom was raised in St Paul, Minnesota, and LaGrange, Illinois, and attended the University of Illinois before being drafted into the U.S. Army in October 1942. and serving until January 1946. In 1947, he graduated with a BA from Eastern Illinois University, and in 1948 obtained his Master's degree from Columbia University's Russian Institute. He was a life-long learner, teacher, mentor, and counselor.

He taught high school history in Norwalk, Connecticut, and in St. Petersburg, Florida, where he became principal of Northeast High School, assistant county superintendent, and a founder of the local educational TV station. Meanwhile, his talented fashionista, Barbara, owned a chain of six dress stores from St. Petersburg to Ft. Myers.

Having vacationed in the North Georgia hills, they fell in love with the area, left their careers, and moved to a farm near Mineral Bluff in 1968.

They devoted most of their time to raising vegetables, and tending cattle and sheep. As the farm wasn't enough to absorb their enormous energy, Barbara opened a craft and antique furniture store and promoted and Appalachian folk artists, while Tom became a homebuilder. In a several-year span, he'd built more than 130 homes, served as justice of the peace, and took a leading role on the local hospital board, Chamber of Commerce, etc.

In the mid-1990s, because of ill health, they left North Georgia for Miami, where their son, John, and daughter-in-law Susan resided. Overnight, they went from farms, sheep and cows to a two-bedroom Miami Beach condo, inhabited entirely by Spanish-speakers.

In this new adventure, Barbara worked as a thrift store to benefit AIDs victims, and Tom volunteered at a local museum and the Miami New World Symphony. Their favorite pastime was horse-racing, and they were at the track two or three times a week. When Barbara died, in 2010, Tom moved for a year to Edenton, North Carolina, where John and Susan spent part of the year. But his fondness for North Georgia overtook him again, and he moved back to Mineral Bluff in 2010, where his daughter, Mel, and her husband, Lee, had lived for 20 years on part of the land he'd once owned with Barbara.

He spent his last years with them, and rented an apartment in Blue Ridge, until he moved to assisted living (Cameron Hall in Ellijay, a warm and loving environment where he spent his last two years before he died.

He will be missed and his passing is a huge loss to Blue Ridge and Fannin county.

His family would like to thank the staff at Cameron Hall of Ellijay for their many kindnesses, the members of the Cherry Log Christian Church, the staff at Cameron, and Hospice--for their loving care.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be sent to:

- (1) Cherry Log Christian Church, 1149 Cherry Log Street, Cherry Log, Georgia, 30522.
- (2) Cameron Hall of Ellijay Assisted Living. 114 Penland Street, Ellijay, Georgia, 30540.
- (3) Hospice Advantage. 583 Highland Crossing, Suite 12D. Ellijay, Georgia, 30540.

Notes for Barbara Calloway:

Since her mid-teens, Barbara has worked in retail stores. She had dress shops on the Florida west coast, an antique and collectable shop in north Georgia and in her retirement still works part-time in Miami.
