

LAMASTER, ELAINE CLAIRE NUETZEL,

86, died peacefully Sunday August 5, 2012 with her family by her side.

Elaine was born April 22, 1926 to Carl A. and Katherine Kelley Nuetzel. Elaine graduated from St. James Grade School and Atherton High School. She started her collegiate career at the University of Louisville before transferring to the University of Kentucky, where she graduated with an English major. She was a champion badminton player, golfer, avid thoroughbred horse racing enthusiast and Kentucky sports fan. She was a member of the Younger Womens Club and The Pendennis Club. Elaine was a beautiful lady who possessed a clever sense of humor and lived life with exuberance.

She is survived by her husband and partner in love of 62 years, William H. LaMaster Sr. and three children, William H. LaMaster Jr., Kelley L. LaMaster and Lawrence N. LaMaster; also nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Her funeral Mass will be celebrated noon Thursday at St. Joseph Catholic Church, 1406 E. Washington St., with burial in Cave Hill Cemetery. Visitation: 4-8 p.m. Wednesday at Pearson's, 149 Breckenridge Lane.

Memorials to St. Joseph Catholic Church.

Pearson's
(502)-896-0349