

KENTUCKY DEATHS

Samuel Lamaster.

Fisherville, Ky., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Samuel Lamaster, 73, died at his home in Shelby county, near Clark Station, late yesterday afternoon from injuries received two weeks ago, when a mule he was riding threw and afterward kicked him as he lay on the ground, breaking his right hip and crushing his chest. His widow, who was Miss Elizabeth Combs; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Downs and Mrs. Sarah Roberts, and two sons, Charles and John W. Lamaster, survive. Mr. Lamaster died in the house in which he was born, and the funeral will take place there Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial will be in Bethlehem churchyard.

Miss Katherine Pryor.

Carrollton, Ky., Sept. 6.—Miss Katherine Pryor, who had been in failing health for a year or more, died at her home following an illness of several weeks. Her father was the late Col. Moses Tandy Pryor, of the Fourth Kentucky cavalry, C. S. A., and her mother was Miss Barbara Giltner, of this city. Miss Pryor had for a number of years been a teacher of expression in various schools. Two brothers, Capt. Mike Pryor, of the United States dredge-boat Gregory, and Moses Pryor, of Wyoming, and one sister, Miss Amelia Pryor, of this city, survive.

Edward Basham.

Vine Grove, Ky., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Edward Basham, 34, died at his father's home yesterday of heart trouble. He is survived by his wife and six children; father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Basham, and five sisters. Mr. Basham was married to Miss Brook Stith, daughter of Mr. Henry Stith, seventeen years ago, and has lived here his entire life.

W. G. Winn.

Glasgow, Ky., Sept. 6.—After several weeks of suffering W. G. Winn, 64, a contractor, died at his home here. A few days ago he had a diseased bone in his arm removed. He never recovered from the operation. He is survived by his wife and three sons, Clem Winn, Glasgow; Edward Winn, Louisville, and Paul Winn, Hopkinsville.
