

James M. Burbridge, of Lexington, and Russell Burbridge, of Kansas City, Mo.

-(Spe-
es seautau-

Dr. Walter Lamaster: Campbellsburg, Ky., March 25.—(Special.)—A telegram has been received by Ben Lamas-ter stating that his oldest brother, Dr. Walter Lamaster, of Ashland, Mo., is dead. For three months Dr. Lamaster has been very low with pneumonia and other complications. He was born in 1855 at the old Lamaster homestead two miles north of here. He took his degree of medicine from the University of Louisville and soon after left Kentucky to make his home in Missouri. His wife, who survives him, with one son, Palmer, was Miss Alice Jones, daughter of the late Wade Jones, of this place. He leaves one sister, Mrs. J. T. Pyles, of Lagrange, and four brothers, Leo Lamaster, of Arkansas; John T. Lamaster, of Lagrange; B. I. and Zack Lamaster, of this place.

Miss Ruble Fuller: Georgetown, Ky., March 25.—(Special.)—A telegram announces the death at a Paducah hospital of Miss Ruble Fuller, a member of the senior class in Georgetown College. Miss Fuller has been making her home since her entrance in college about four years ago with her kinswoman, Mrs. Watterson Showalter, and became so ill that at Christmas it was decided best that she return home. She was suffering with heart trouble.