This day a writing purporting to be the last will and testament of J. E. Robertson, deceased, was presented in open court. Walt Wright one of the subscribing witnesses, being deceased, and the other subscribing witness L. F. Bennett, proven the signature of Walt Wright and also the signature of J. E. Robertson, deceased, after being first duly sworn, the court being satisfied that said instrument is the last will and testament of J. E. Robertson, deceased, was ordered to probate as the last will and testament of J. E. Robertson, deceased, and ordered to be recorded as such, which was done accordingly.

Given under my hand this 15th day of March, 1962.

I, J. E. Robertson, a resident of McLean County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and over twenty-one years of age, do make, publish, and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore by me made, or any codicils thereto.

Item I. I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate, as soon as practical after my death.

Item II. I will and bequeath to my wife, Verna Robertson, all of my property, both personal and real, wherever same may be situated or located, to be hers absolutely, to do with as she may deem fit.

Item III. I nominate and appoint my wife, Verna Robertson, the executrix of this my last will and testament, and desire that she may be appointed as such without bond, and that no inventory or appraisement be made, except as might be required by law.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, witness my signature this 25th day of February, 1946.

J. E. Robertson
