There is another well established line of Springfields in South Carolina. It starts with Thomas Springfield and Laodica. Another researcher list the parents of Thomas as being Thomas born about 1741 in Old Grandville, North Carolina and married to Martha. They do not list Moses as a son. The date of death of the elder Thomas was 20 Sep 1869 and the date of appoint of the Guardian for Moses was November 1868. I think it is likely that Moses was the son of Thomas and Martha.

called in the militia "the eighteen months service" and under Captain Dickerson marched down into the southeastern part of this state and at some point on the Cape Fear he was discharged but that he received no written discharge. This declarant was engaged in no battle. That he has no documentary evidence that can be useful to him in the investigation of his claim by the Department. Dependant as he is entirely upon his memory both as to the time he entered and the time he was discharged from service he does pretend to give dates or years, but that from his best recollections he was engaged in actual service from nine to eleven months. State of North Carolina Person County: Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions December Term 1834

On the 16th day of December 1834, appeared in open Court before the presiding Justices of said Court, aforesaid (it being a Court of record) Moses Springfield a resident citizen of Person County aged seventy years, who being duly sworn according to law doth upon his oath make the following amended declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832.

That upon a recurrence to his former declaration, he has discovered that his first term of Service has been totally omitted to be stated, but that in fact he was first drafted into the Service in the Militia of his County (then Caswell) under the command of Captain Frederick Debois or Debau for the term of 3 months, and was marched from Caswell Court house to Hillsboro where he was stationed as a guard and there continued until the expiration of his term. That in the year 1781 he was again drafted and put under Captain Hardin or Harding and was again marched from Caswell Courthouse to Ramsey's Mills as stated in his former declaration and served as heretofore stated the term of 3 months under General Butler, he now remembers no it had escaped his memory when his first declaration was made that the Lieutenant of his company was Thomas Barnett.

He now states that for some error in himself or his Scribe, the Circumstances related as having occurred at Hillsboro during this tour occurred in his first tour in 1780 under Captain Debois and were unaccountably confounded in his first declaration with the events of this second tour of 3 months under Captain Hardin. He remained at Ramsey's Mills in full 3 months for which he was drafted and was there discharged. That he subsequently entered the service by draft for 18 months under Captain Dickson the date of his Service he cannot now remember though it was shortly after the termination of his second tour at Ramsey's Mills and was marched into the South eastern part of the State, but long before the termination of his term of Service he was discharged near the Cape Fear River he cannot say how long he served in the last engagement - but he is very certain that in all the various tours he served at least 9 months, that he now knows no one surviving who served with him except John Clayton¹ who served his two first tours in the same company, and Coleman Clayton² who served under Captain Hardin at Ramsays Mills - This declarant is frail of memory having for 13 years been afflicted with a Stroke of the palsy he is therefore unable to state the particulars with entire certainty - that he has been careful to state nothing which is not well impressed on his memory.

This amended Application has been delayed on account of the laws of the papers for more than a year.

Sworn to and subscribed in open Court the day and year above written.

MOSES STREET JONES

The name Jones is of Welsh origin. Researchers found that it was first spelled Johnys, then Johnes and later Jones. My great grandfather Moses Jones was born May 27, 1797 in Mecklenburg County, Virginia. He was the son of Richard and Jane Comer Jones. It has been said that his parents were accident victims which left their son an orphan at an early age. A maternal family friend named Thomas Street of Person County, NC took the lad and raised him.

Appreciation of the kindness of the man who befriended him caused Moses Jones to name one of his sons Moses Street Jones. My grandfather Moses Street Jones was born March 2, 1834 in Person County. He was seventh of ten children of Moses and Joanna Boltin Springfield Jones who were married November 11, 1819.

Other children are: Richard, born 9-15--1820, married Martha Ann Gentry 1-10-1839, death date unknown; William, born 9-6-1822, married Jane Brooks 12-15-1842, died 2-29--1896, buried beside his wife in Shiloh Church Cemetery; Elizabeth Comer Jones, born 9-26-1824, married William Walker 11-25-1840, died 6-1-1851; James Wesley, born 11-5--1826, married Mahaly S. Burton 4-20-1848, death date unknown; John Richmond born 6-20-1829, died 2-26-1897 (Tombstone has birthdate 8-1-1829); Gabriel Yancey born 2--17-1832 died 4-26-1862, buried in Jones Family Cemetery; Calvin born 8-11-1836, married Patty Morton, buried at Milton; Jane Jones born 9-6-1839, married John B. Day 11-28-1860; Threeza Loyd born 10-5-1842, married a Southerland and moved to Missouri.

Moses S. Jones was a slim man of medium height with blue grey eyes and reddish hair. He wore a beard most of his adult life. He loved to work and worked long hours on the farm. He was known to complain that he was never able to lift a "2 bushel sack of shelled corn." During his life time Moses S. Jones was astute in buying and selling land. At one time he owned several thousand acres of land in the Bethel Hill, Woodsdale areas and in Virginia along the border plus property in the town of Roxboro. He established a home in Woods-dale township about five miles from the Virginia line. Tenant families worked the land either for half or fourth share of their profit depending on whether they owned their team (mules). In 1909 Mr. Jones built a brick vaneer hotel in Roxboro on the site of the frame Dowdy Hotel (site of present P.H. Rose Store). It was known as the Jones Hotel until it was renamed Hotel Roxboro. It was abolished in 1961.

Moses S. Jones was one of the 12 men granted certificate of incorporation for the Peoples Bank (now First Union) chartered during the 1891 session of the N.C. legislature.

During the Civil War, Moses S. Jones was a soldier in Company K of the 12th N.C. Regiment, under General Early. While in service he had measles and stayed in a feed barn until he was able to return to duty.

Moses S. Jones was past forty years old when in 1880 he married the first time. His wife was Bettie King Rogers, a widow eight years his junior, with one son Zeb Rogers. She died a few years later and was buried in the Rogers cemetery at Woodsdale. Mr. Jones provided for his step-son to attend A & E College (N.C. State) to study Architectural Engineering. According to my mother, Zeb Rogers designed Pennsylvania Railroad Station in Washington, D.C.

Generation 4 (con't)

On March 1, 1894 Moses S. Jones married a second time, Addie F. Jones of Brunswick County, Virginia. Unfortunately, she died October 22, 1895, one day after giving birth to a daughter. The infant was named Addie Garnett. Two years later Mr. Jones married Ida Jones, his second wife's sister. Ten years later in 1907 Moses Jones was a widower for the third time.

Grandfather's mother Joanna lived with him for many years after her husband's death in August 1854. She was 98 years, 2 months of age when she died in 1897. Both Moses and his wife Joanna are buried in the Jones Family Cemetery. Also, Joanna's parents Moses and Betsy Springfield are buried in the Jones Family Cemetery. This cemetery is located near the Moses Jones' family home which now stands empty and in bad repair. The home site is located about one mile off State Road 1322 approximately three fourth mile East of Woodsdale.

Though he had little formal education, M.S. Jones was an advocate of education. Besides providing for his step son's education, he gave financial assistance to ministerial students who attended Bethel Hill Institute, the boarding school founded by the Rev. J.A. Beam. Later, when the need arose for a more centrally located school in the community, Mr. Jones was serving on the local school board. He gave land and the rough timber for a new elementary school at the site of the present Bethel Hill school. Date of deed is September 1919. Anticipating that he would have grand-children to be educated (I was the only one in 1919) grandfather set up a scholarship fund at Meredith and Wake Forest Colleges. Four grandchildren benefitted from these scholarships.

Moses S. Jones was 86 when he died May 19, 1920. He is buried beside his second wife Addie at Bethel Hill Church where he had been a faithful and contributing member.

Material for this sketch was secured from an old family Bible, courthouse records and family members.

Notes for Ida Bell Southerland:

Note by Martha Waggoner: I am 100 % sure of this marriage (I have a copy of the marriage license.) I am unsure, though whether she married J. W. Miller. I had thought so, but I find a J. W. Miller who married an Ida Young in Stoddard Co. Our Ida does not fit with the information given on the internet about this Ida Young. At first I thought that the Ida Miller who is buried at Sadler's Chapel Cemetery near the others in the family was our Ida who is buried along with a child, Opal. The Ida Miller who is buried there has the following information on the tombstone: Born: April 15, 1878; Died August 25, 1907.

The birth date fits in the time frame with our Ida, but more research needs to be done to know for sure. The information for the little girl as Ida's daughter is Opal Miller, born October 14, 1901 and Died on October 27, 1907.
