SHACKELFORD FAMILY DATA

Submitted by Mrs. Nina Shackelford Taylor, 2920 Yale Place, Owensboro, Ky. 42301

Roger Shackelford who emigrated from England to the Virginia Colony about the middle of the 17th century is the first Shackelford to be mentioned in the public records in America. It is known that one Edward Palmer received a patent or grant of land of 400 acres in Gloucester County, Virginia for the transportation of eight persons into Virginia, including Roger Shackelford. The date of this grant was 4 June 1658. Edward Palmer had a sister, Mary, on the above list and there is good reason to believe, though no proof, that Roger Shackelford married Mary Palmer.

The first time that Roger Shackelford appears as of record is the year 1678 when he is granted 313 acres of land in Gloucester County. This was not the first land he had possessed in Virginia evidenced by the wording of the document found in Land Book VI at page 665.

Among the numerous family records in England, included is the Will of John Shackelford, a butcher of New Alresford. It was dated March 26 1647 and proved in Bishop's Court, Winchester, March 30 1647. In this Will he mentioned his cousins: Richard Shackelford, John Shackelford, Ann Shackelford, and five children of his cousin John Shackelford, deceased. The five children of the deceased John were as follows:

- (1) John Shackelford, baptized Old Alresford, December 23, 1647.
- (2) Roger Shackelford, baptized Old Alresford, April 23, 1629.
- (3) Charles Shackelford, baptized Old Alresford, January 25, 1630.
- (4) Christopher Shackelford, baptized Old Alresford, March 10, 1632.
- (5) Ingram Shackelford, baptized Old Alresford, October 12, 1636.

The date of Roger's death is unknown but his name appears on the Quit Rent Roll for 1704. He is known to have had four sons, namely - James, Francis, John and Zachariah. Also, Benjamin, Charles, Roger, Jr. and William have been added to the list.

John Shackelford, progenitor of the branch of the family in western Kentucky, resided in Culpeper County, Virginia in the early 1760's. This information from the Pension petition of his son, Mordocai, who served in the Revolutionary War as a substitute for his father. He states he was born in said county. John, the father, was a member of Peter Hogg's Rangers in the war against the Indians in 1755 and is mentioned as sheriff at one time in Pittsylvania County. He married Mary Anno White, daughter of Jeromiah. Jeromiah White left a Will in Albemarle County, Va., dated in 1777, in which he named, among several others, a daughter: Anno Shackelford. It will be noted that they named a son, Jeromiah.

We also know that John and Anno owned land in Elbert County, Georgia but there is no proof of their ever living there. They show up in Washington County, Ky., in 1796 and later sold the Georgia land to Ezekiel Bailey. Later, about 1802, they moved to Shelby County where they purchased several hundred acres of land and made this their home during their later years, together. John's death occurred in the latter part of 1819 and was survived by his wife, Anne.

WILL OF JOHN SHACKELFORD

Knowing the uncertainty of death, I, the said John Shackelford, being weak in body but of sound understanding, do proclaim the following to be my last will and testament.

First: All of my just debts to be paid.

To my wife-- Anne Shackelford, I leave all of my estate, both personal and real; and after her death the estate to be divided.

To my daughter--Milly Shackelford, I give three negroes, James and his children, Lucy and Richmond; provided that if she dies without issue that her share shall go to her sisters, equally.

And to the heirs of my daughter, Betsy Ballard, two negroes, Sarah and Squire.

To my daughter--Polly Ann Hewlett, I give three negroes, Caroline, Phoebe and Laco. But in case Polly Ann dies without issue, her part to go to her two sisters.

To my son--Jeremiah Shackelford, I leave my plantation containing 175-acres of land.

I have given to my sons--John, William and Sterling Shackelford, and to my daughter--Nancy R. Gregory, 50-acres of land, each.

I give to my son, William, my negro boy, Nat. And to my son, Mordocai, I will $550.00 (five hundred and fifty dollars) which is to be raised by sale of property.

To my son--Sterling Shackelford, I give my negro boy, Barber.

To the heirs of my deceased son--John Shackelford, I will $400.00 (four hundred dollars) to be equally divided between them and the children of my deceased daughter, Nancy R. Gregory.

After the death of my wife-- Anne Shackelford, all my personal property, and my two negroes, Cupid and Dilce, to be sold, and if the sales of the property hereby directed to be sold should bring more money than is devised by this will, the overplus to be divided into two equal parts, one for Betsy Ballard and one for Milly Shackelford.

I appoint my wife--Anne Shackelford, and my son, William Shackelford, and William Hewlett to be my executors. his

Estate appraised January 1820, and probated October County Court, Shelby County, Kentucky, 1822

William W., son of John and Anno (White) Shackelford, was born ca 1769 in Virginia and came with his parents to Kentucky. He was married 17 May-1802 in Washington County to Jane Cosby, born 7 March 1782, dau. of John and Susanna (Wingfield) Cosby. They resided in the north central section of Kentucky where their children were born. Jane, the mother, is believed to have died there in the late 1820's. It appears that two of the children had gone to Hardeman County, Tenn., and were joined by the father, W.W., ca 1830.

Notes for Henry Guthrie:

Henry Guthrie was born in Hanover County, Virginia. He applied for a pension Sept. 10 1832, in the circuit court for the District of West Tenn. He said he fought as a private in the North Caroline Line. He served several terms as a gunsmith and was wounded near the end of the War. He was a signer of the Cumberland Compact on May 1, 1780.

Henry Guthrie and his partner drilled a well for salt water near Nashville Salt Springs in 1791, but they got sulphur water. He was living in Davidson County, Tenn. Jan. 4, 1837. Guthrie's wife Nancy Ann Shackleford Guthrie, applied for a pension in 1851. She died in 1870.

Henry Guthrie is buried in the old Guthrie graveyard near the Nolensville Community of Williamson County, Tenn.

Notes for Adeline Shackelford:

Adeline Shackelford is buried on their farm, Frederick Binkley Cemetery.

Notes for Frederick Binkley:

Frederick Binkley is buried on their farm, Frederick Binkley Cemetery. Mrs. W. Kiger of Chattanooga, TN, in 1981 mentions that, "she had all twelve volumes of the Moravian Records of NC, which lists diaries of the ministers and is most interesting! Kent Stark Krisle said 3 Feb 1995, "Frederick Binkley came to Tennessee with his uncles Adam and Jacob Binkley before March 1791. Frederick was a carpenter. In the spring of 1799, he, along with David Cumming, entered into a contract with John Overton to build a home for Overton. This home, called Traveller's Rest, has been restored and is open to the public. (It's at 636 Ferrell Parkway, in Nashville. It's right off Franklin Road, and there are some signs that direct you to it. It's not far from Overton High School.) The contract specified the carpenter would be paid by title to a 320 acre tract on Stone's River owned by Overton, at the rate of two dollars per acre. Frederick Binkley received title to this land on 1 Jun 1801. David Cumming was bondsman on the marriage of Frederick to Adeline. On the bond, Frederick signed his name Pinkley. The family graveyard of Frederick Binkley was originally on a hill near his home. During construction of J. Percy Priest Dam, the graves were moved to Mt. Juliet Cemetery.

"From Stokes Co., NC History, provided by Peggy Ferguson - Stokes Co. was one of the largest counties. Germanton was the county seat. On 16 Jan 1849, the NC General Assembly placed a portion of Stokes into Forsyth Co. In 1844, Samuel Shackelford purchased a tract of land on the Dan River. The river hills iron mines were thriving on Moody's forge from workers and boatmen. Thus, a tavern was built on a trail west of the river and forge by Shackelford. In March 1849, the court ordered commissioners to erect a courthouse and jail to be completed by mid-1851. The commissioners needed a meeting place to pick a site for the new county seat. Since taverns were a popular meeting place, Shackelford's tavern became as good a place to meet as any. On 10 Jun 1849, Shackelford sold to William A. Lash, 47 acres of land for $75.00 on the Dan River and Buck Island Road. Prior to making the deal public, several of the J.P.'s hurriedly bought the land in the immediate neighborhood for the 'sole purpose of speculation. This 'unethical behavior' and a chief reason for naming this spot the county seat was that strong drink was available."
