

MRS. JAMES H. DENNY

Miss Deanne Vanover and Mr. James H. Denny were married Aug. 27 at 4:30 p.m. at the Lewis Lane Baptist Church. The Rev. William H. Denny, father of the groom, performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Eldred M. Taylor, Somerset, Ky.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel H. Vanover, 3149 Essex Drive, Owensboro.

The groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Denny of Hamilton, Ohio.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white alencon lace over bridal satin with modified Sabrina neckline, a fitted bodice embroidered with seed pearls, and long, tapered sleeves. The flared, two-tiered skirt had a full, detachable train of silk chiffon fastened at the waistline. Her ballerina-length veil of silk illusion was held in place with a band of lace-covered satin, centered at front with the gold wedding band of the bride's maternal grandmother. Her flowers were a cascade of white roses and pompons. Her only jewelry was pearl earrings, a gift of the groom.

The double-ring ceremony was performed before the altar decorated with greenery and lighted candelabra, and white floral bouquets.

Miss Jeannie Taylor, Somerset, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Her floor-length gown was of sky-blue voile over taffeta with fitted empire waistline, A-line skirt, and cap sleeves. A satin bow at the waist and full-length streamers detailed the back of the gown. Her matching head-dress was a short circlet veil held by a satin bow. She carried large white mums centered in blue net.

Miss Anna Lee Favel, Owensboro, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her dress was identical to that of the maid of honor. Flower girl was Betty Sue Denny, niece of the groom.

Best man was Rex Denny, Cincinnati, Ohio, brother of the groom. Ushers were Ron Vanover, Lexington, brother of the bride, Eddy Edwards, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The mother of the bride wore a two-piece pink lace dress with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a dress of aqua silk shantung with corresponding accessories. Both wore white rose corsages.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the following room of the church. Assisting were Mrs. Eddy Edwards, Mrs. Rex Denny, Mrs. Eldred Taylor, Mrs. Lester Kerrick.

The bride's grandfathers, A. L. Kerrick and E. H. Vanover both of Owensboro, attended the wedding.

For traveling the bride chose a sky-blue empire styled dress with full three-quarter length sleeves, trimmed with lace and embroidery, and matching accessories.

After a wedding trip to point of interest in Kentucky, the couple will return to Cumberland College, Williamsburg, Ky., where Mr. Denny is a candidate for a E. S. degree, and Mrs. Denny is a junior, majoring in sociology.
