

KELLER-VANOVER VOWS EXCHANGED

Miss Linda Lee Keller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Keller of Route 4, Cynthiana, and Ronald Dale Vanover, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Vanover, 5149 Essex Drive, were married at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 20, at Ruffles Mills Christian Church, Paris, Ky. The Rev. Jerry Gimman officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white silk double organza over angelmist taffeta, designed in an empire, princess silhouette. The low oval neckline was encircled by a Point-de-Venice lace bertha and caught at the high waistline with a sateen bow with streamers extending the length of the full chapel train. Her tiered French illusion veil was held by a halo of stephanotis, and her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. James Denny of Owensboro, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. Her sleeveless gown was fashioned of maize dotted Swiss. The highrise bodice was defined by a sateen bow in front, but with a rounded neckline and a cage effect in back. Her garden hat of organza was circled with velvet ribbon that formed a bow and streamers accented with a cluster of daisies. Her flowers were a nosegay of daisies and baby's breath.

Wearing identical yellow gowns were the maid of honor, Miss Wanda Barlow, and the bridesmaid, Miss Beverly Readnour, both of Cynthiana.

Robert Estes of Owensboro was best man and seating the guests were Isaac Ray Keller of Cynthiana, brother of the bride, and Harold Halfhill of Lexington.

The bride's mother wore a maize silk suit with complementing accessories and a corsage of tiny white orchids and yellow rosebuds. The mother of the groom wore an ice blue silk shantung afternoon dress with lace jacket. Her corsage was ivory orchids and yellow rosebuds.

A reception was held in the early afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.

After a two week trip in Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Vanover will make their home at 255 Clearview Dr., Lexington.
