

Nannie Rose Hund

Nannie Rose Hund, 82, of 2548 Citation Ave., Owensboro, died Friday, Jan. 24, 2003, at Owensboro Mercy Health System. The Henderson County native retired from Texas Gas as a secretary, was a member of Third Baptist Church, taught Sunday school, led the children's choir and was a member of the sanctuary choir. She was a Hospice volunteer, a sponsor for the Owensboro Symphony and Owensboro Art Museum and enjoyed University of Kentucky basketball and crossword puzzles.

Survivors include several cousins.

Services are at 11 a.m. Monday at Haley-McGinnis & Owensboro Funeral Home chapel. Burial will be in Elmwood Cemetery in Owensboro. Visitation is from 2 to 6 p.m. today and after 9 a.m. Monday at the funeral home. Expressions of sympathy may take the form of donations to Hospice Association, 723 Harvard Drive, Owensboro, KY 42301 or Kentucky Baptist Children's Home, Dept. 5088, P.O. Box 740041, Louisville, KY 40201-9976.

Obituary for Nannie Rose Hund (Aged 82)

Clipped By:

edhill54
Sat, Jul 25, 2020