

Ross Cecil Favel, 60, of Columbia, Ala., died Tuesday, Sept. 18, 1984, at his home. He was born in Portland, Ore.; was the owner and operator of Favel's Fixit Shop; was formerly employed with Daniel Construction Co. at the Joseph Farley Nuclear Plant; and was a licensed Southern Baptist minister. He was a member of First Baptist Church, Columbia, and Pipefitters and Plumbers Local No. 120, Cleveland, Ohio.

Survivors include his wife, Winona Vanover Favel, formerly of Owensboro; three sons, Daniel E. Favel with the U.S. Marine Corps in Okinawa, David E. Favel of Pearl River, La., and Darrel J. Favel of Rockwall, Texas; two daughters, Mrs. Anna Lee Wiles of Silver Point, Tenn., and Rossita Favel of Columbia; eight grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Betty Ratto of Santa Rosa, Calif.

Services were Sunday at First Baptist Church, Columbia. Burial was in Columbia City Cemetery.

Obituary for Ross Cecil Favel (Aged 60)

Clipped By:

edhill54

Sun, Oct 25, 2020